DAILY GAZETTE.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette
From the Eighth Regiment.

PILOT KNOB, Mo., Oct. 19, 1861.

DEAR GAZETTE:—After being in camp at St. Louis one day, we, with one half of the regiment, received orders to leave on Tuesday evening, and the other half left on Wednesday morning. We did not know where we were going till our arrival at the depot of the Iron Mountain railroad, we then for the first time found that a bridge, some fifty miles from St. Louis, had been burned, and that some fifteen hundred rebels had taken twenty-eight of our men prisoners. We arrived at Desoto at dark, and laid all night in the open air. The houses were mostly deserted, as the people thought the town would be burnt by the rebels that night.—On our arrival we put a guard around the town. Three times during the night the regiment was called out and formed in line of battle. The boys were all anxious for a fight, but we were disappointed. I assure you we had little sleep that night. Thursday morning we went on ten miles further to the place where the bridge was burned. Did not find any rebels there. We had to get out of the cars and go down a very steep hill and ford the stream called Big river. There was a large amount of baggage and it all had to be removed down the hill, over the river, and up just as steep a hill on the other side. I don't think that ever the same number of men did a greater amount of work in the same length of time. There were not cars to take all the men and baggage, and it was reported that there was a battle going on ahead, and the men must be sent forward. The Colonel took nine companies, and at 9 o'clock that evening, left us (the Janesville company) behind, to guard the baggage, of which we had a large amount. From the fact that it was reported that there was a large number of rebels in the vicinity, (they burnt a house the night before our arrival,) it was a very small number of men to leave at such an important point; but we all went to work with a will, and in a short time had a breast work made of the boxes, &c. We put a guard all around us, loaded a large number of extra guns, and all kept watch; we were good for at least fifteen hundred rebels. We also had ten prisoners; one of them has three times sworn not to take up arms against the government; would it not be a blessing to himself to kill such a dog?

The night passed and the enemy did not appear, and we concluded that they are great cowards, or bad managers. At 3 o'clock yesterday the train returned from the Knob for us. We all went to work again and loaded the train; did not get off until about ten o'clock in the evening. We arrived here about 3 A. M., unloaded the train, and after that was done we were marched about a mile to the place where our regiment was in camp, and found them all lying out in the open air. We let the knapsacks fall from our backs, threw ourselves down on the ground, and were soon asleep. I awoke this morning about seven o'clock, and what a scene! East, west, north and south of us was a rugged mountain—some say a hill, but if they call that a hill I should like to see a mountain. I went to the top of one to day, over six hundred feet high; the top is one solid rock, from which floats the "Flag of our Union." This is a very important point, as it is the terminus of the railroad, it is supposed that if the rebels should take it St. Louis would be in danger; but you need not be alarmed, they will never have it. Already we have five thousand men, and more are coming in every day. Jeff. Thompson has been reported as intending to take breakfast here every morning for the last week; if he don't come in a day or two we are going out to fetch him and his forty thousand men in, as they are reported to be starving. On each of the three roads entering the town we have a 36 pounder to salute them when they come.

I have written a much longer letter than I expected, and have not said one half I want to, but I must now close.

Yours truly,
JOHN A. WHITE.

The republicans of the senatorial district comprising the counties of Eau Claire, Pepin, &c., have nominated Hon. M. D. Bartlett for the senate.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE EX GOVERNOR—Ex-Gov. Wm. Woodbridge, of Michigan, died at Detroit, on the 20th inst., at the venerable age of 81.

The negroes in Canada are emigrating in large numbers to Hayti. One hundred and forty-four left Chatham last week.—They are probably apprehensive that Canada will be annexed to the United States if we have a brush with John Bull.

It is said in Louisville, Ky., that Col. J. H. Harney, a strong Union man, will be chosen to the seat of John C. Breckinridge in the United States senate, and that John J. Crittenden will succeed Lazarus W. Powell.

Henry Winter Davis spoke to an immense audience at Baltimore, Wednesday evening, on the rebellion. He endorsed the war policy of the government fully, and his speech was enthusiastically received.

A new invention in artillery is noticed in the Pittsburgh papers. In consists of an entire battery on a single carriage. The six field pieces are securely fastened to a turn table, which revolves as the guns are successfully discharged.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From the Eighth Regiment.

PILOT KNOB, MO., Oct. 19, 1861.

DEAR GAZETTE:—After being in camp at St. Louis one day, we, with one half of the regiment, received orders to leave on Tuesday evening, and the other half left on Wednesday morning. We did not know where we were going till our arrival at the depot of the Iron Mountain railroad, we then for the first time found that a bridge, some fifty miles from St. Louis, had been burned, and that some fifteen hundred rebels had taken twenty-eight of our men prisoners. We arrived at Desoto at dark, and laid all night in the open air. The houses were mostly deserted, as the people thought the town would be burnt by the rebels that night.—On our arrival we put a guard around the town. Three times during the night the regiment was called out and formed in line of battle. The boys were all anxious for a fight, but we were disappointed. I assure you we had little sleep that night. Thursday morning we went on ten miles further to the place where the bridge was burned. Did not find any rebels there. We had to get out of the cars and go down a very steep hill and ford the stream called Big river. There was a large amount of baggage and it all had to be removed down the hill, over the river, and up just as steep a hill on the other side. I don't think that ever the same number of men did a greater amount of work in the same length of time. There were not cars to take all the men and baggage, and it was reported that there was a battle going on ahead, and the men must be sent forward. The Colonel took nine companies, and at 9 o'clock that evening, left us (the Janesville company) behind, to guard the baggage, of which we had a large amount. From the fact that it was reported that there was a large number of rebels in the vicinity, (they burnt a house the night before our arrival,) it was a very small number of men to leave at such an important point; but we all went to work with a will, and in a short time had a breast work made of the boxes, &c. We put a guard all around us, loaded a large number of extra guns, and all kept watch; we were good for at least fifteen hundred rebels. We also had ten prisoners; one of them has three times sworn not to take up arms against the government; would it not be a blessing to himself to kill such a dog?

The night passed and the enemy did not appear, and we concluded that they are great cowards, or bad managers. At 3 o'clock yesterday the train returned from the Knob for us. We all went to work again and loaded the train; did not get off until about ten o'clock in the evening. We arrived here about 3 A. M., unloaded the train, and after that was done we were marched about a mile to the place where our regiment was in camp, and found them all lying out in the open air. We let the knapsacks fall from our backs, threw ourselves down on the ground, and were soon asleep. I awoke this morning about seven o'klock, and what a scene! East, west, north and south of us was a rugged mountain—some say a hill, but if they call that a hill I should like to see a mountain. I went to the top of one to-day, over six hundred feet high; the top is one solid rock, from which floats the "Flag of our Union." This is a very important point, as it is the terminus of the railroad, it is supposed that if the rebels should take it St. Louis would be in danger; but you need not be alarmed, they will never have it. Already we have five thousand men, and more are coming in every day. Jeff. Thompson has been reported as intending to take breakfast here every morning for the last week; if he don't come in a day or two we are going out to fetch him and his forty thousand men in, as they are reported to be starving. On each of the three roads entering the town we have a 36-pounder to salute them when they come.

I have written a much longer letter than I expected, and have not said one-half I want to, but I must now close.

Yours truly,

JOHN A. WHITE.

The republicans of the senatorial district comprising the counties of Eau Claire, Pepin, &c., have nominated Hon. M. D. Bartlett for the senate.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE EX-GOVERNOR.—Ex-Gov. Wm. Woodbridge, of Michigan, died at Detroit, on the 20th inst., at the venerable age of 84.

The negroes in Canada are emigrating in large numbers to Hayti. One hundred and forty-four left Chatham last week.—They are probably apprehensive that Canada will be annexed to the United States if we have a brush with John Bull.

It is said in Louisville, Ky., that Col. J. H. Harney, a strong Union man, will be chosen to the seat of John C. Breckinridge in the United States senate, and that John J. Crittenden will succeed Lazarus W. Powell.

Henry Winter Davis spoke to an immense audience at Baltimore, Wednesday evening, on the rebellion. He endorsed the war policy of the government fully, and his speech was enthusiastically received.

A new invention in artillery is noticed in the Pittsburgh papers. In consists of an entire battery on a single carriage. The six field pieces are securely fastened to a turn-table, which revolves as the guns are successfully discharged.

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The War in Missouri.

The St. Louis Democrat of Tuesday rning says:—The confederates are to hopelessly beaten in Missouri, and their ces are fleeing hence into Arkansas.— a day or two since, the advices were rsistent to the purport that Price was ecipitately retiring from the state, in the owed belief that a battle with Fremont uld prove ruinous. It next appeared that gent appeals from Hardee, McCulloch, ckner and Polk, accompanied with as rance of reinforcement, had induced the reating General "to make a stand."— ey told him that to leave the state would to lose it, and to permit Fremont to ve resistlessly through Arkansas and in Kentucky and Tennessee. The intelli ence now is that Price is again disap nted, and is continuing his flight.— nting the aid pledged him at Lexington, led opportunely thence, and now unsup rted, as in his exigency he deems indis sable, he chooses humanely the ruin of cause, without a battle to its equally in table destruction with one. So much of ce's demoralized army as remains with n will doubtless be persuaded into Ar nsas, and thence routed or scattered.— e federal army of the west has at last ning before it the fair programme of ving down the great valley to co operate h the federal navies on the Gulf.

cretary Cameron's Order to General Fremont.

We have heretofore published the follow , but as its authenticity is not denied, give it as a part of the history of the nes:

The following is a copy of the very im rtant order issued by the secretrry of war fore he left St. Louis, and after he had ited Gen. Fremont at Tipton:

"ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 14.

"GENERAL: The secretary of war directs to communicate the following as his structions for your government:

"In view of the heavy sums due, espec ly in the quartermaster's department in s city, amounting to some $1,500,000, it important that the money which may w be in the hands of the disbursing offi rs, or be received by them, be applied to e current expenses of your army in Mis uri, and these debts to remain unpaid un they can be properly examined and sent Washington for settlement; the disburs g officers of the army to disburse the nds, and not transfer them to irresponsi e agents—in other words, those who do t hold commissions from the president, d are not under bonds. All contracts cessary to be made are to be made by e disbursing officers. The senior quar rmaster here has been verbally instructed the secretary as above.

"It is deemed unnecessary to erect field rks around this city, and you will direct eir discontinuance; also those, if any, in urse of construction at Jefferson City. this connection, it is seen that a number commissions have been given by you. o payment will be made to such officers, cept to those confirmed by the president. his, of course, does not apply to the offi rs with volunteer troops. Col. Andrews s been verbally so instructed by the sec tary; also, not to make transfers of funds, cept for the purpose of paying the troops.

"The erection of barracks near your arters in this city to be at once discon ned.

"The secretary has been informed that e troops of Gen. Lane's command are mmitting depredations on our friends in estern Missouri. Your attention is di cted to this, in the expectation that you ll apply the corrective.

"Major Allen desires the services of ptain Turnley for a short time, and the cretary hopes you may find it proper to cede thereto.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
"Your obedient servant,
"L. THOMAS, Adj't. Gen'l."

"Major General JOHN C. FREMONT, commanding department of the west, Tipton, issouri."

This order is disgraceful to the secretary war, and not to Gen. Fremont. It is ather a compliment to the latter. Evi ntly the secretary is dissatisfied with Fremont, and if the insinuations contained in this document are true, Gen. Fremont should be removed. But the war department does not dare to displace him. The ebullitions of spleen against him in this order are the mutterings and fault-findings of imbecility against a superior power. Fremont will look down upon it in that light from his superior elevation, and will treat it with the contempt it deserves.

The amount expended by Fremont, $4,500,000, will not astound the people at all considering the vast sums expended elsewhere, and taking into view the work performed in Missouri; but by removing the place of settlement of the accounts of the western department from St. Louis to Washington, a nice per centage will be made by somebody in buying them up.

The irregularity of Gen. Fremont's appointments is not greater than is constantly occurring in this war everywhere. The administration knew that Fremont must have officers and munitions. If they did not desire him to use his authority in the manner he has, why did they not supply him from Washington? Why so late in discovering his proceedings? They knew every day what he was doing; but it will be remembered that no fault was found with him until the Blair quarrel. His proceedings were all regular until F. P. Blair, Jr., ascertained that he was not to control everything, making Fremont a mere cat's-paw.

An unworthy imputation is contained in the discontinuance of barracks "near your residence": as if they were placed in that position to protect the commanding general, who is exposing himself in a distant part of the state. There may be some courtly phrase at Washington to designate such a thing—but we have not learned it "out west"—we here call it mean.

The paltry insinuation about Gen. Lane is in perfect keeping with the whole order. He carries on the war in earnest, which is not the policy at Washington. His hands are not covered with cotton when he touches the enemy, and he does not regard traitors as "friends." This is his offence.

This order will not be regarded as a creditable production on the part of the secretary of war, in the future history that is to be written of this contest. He will occupy a small space in it compared with the man whom he assails.

THE BATTLE OF BOLIVAR.—The Milwaukee Sentinel publishes a letter from Frederick, Md., giving an account of a serious fight at Bolivar, near Harper's Ferry, on the 16th, in which three companies of the Wisconsin third distinguished themselves. Companies A, C, and H, of that regiment were sent to Harper's Ferry on the 9th, for the purpose of securing 30,000 bushels of wheat, and conveying it across the Potomac. On the morning of the 10th they were attacked by about sixty horsemen, but succeeded in driving them off, killing two of the enemy. From that time until the 16th they were unmolested and succeeded in conveying all the wheat across the river but about 1000 bushels. On the morning of the 16th our troops, together with detachments from the Massachusetts 13th and Pennsylvania 28th, were attacked by a large force, some five or six hundred, who had two cannon, one a 32 pounder, Columbiad. After fighting two hours and capturing the Columbiad, they were forced to retire to Bolivar, leaving the captured gun.

After gaining Bolivar, recruiting their cartridge boxes, and resting a short time, they formed a line and advanced upon the enemy again, having now the aid of a piece of artillery. When they arrived within view of the 32 pounder again, they found it deserted. The enemy fired a few shots at them and retired.

Our boys took their captured cannon across the river with them. The loss was three men killed, one taken prisoner, and six or seven wounded. The name of one Wisconsin soldier is mentioned among the killed—Mosher, of company C. The correspondent pays a high compliment to the Massachusetts soldiers, but two companies of the Pennsylvanians retreated. This was a brilliant affair, and the conduct of our Wisconsin troops is much lauded.

MORE SUPERSEDING.—The special correspondents of the New York papers again inform us by telegraph that Gen. Fremont has been superseded; and that he has not.

If the administration knew how detrimental such rumors are to the Union cause in the west, they would put an end to the public suspense in this matter.

We see that these correspondents have commenced superseding Gen. McClellan, also. Let this be stopped at once. The people will lose all confidence in the government, if they are to be continually excited by doubts created in this manner.

THE CRY FOR BREAD IN FRANCE.—The London Times says that France will be compelled to spend forty millions sterling, or, in round numbers, two hundred millions of dollars, to make up the deficiencies in her domestic bread crops of this year, and that both "Canada and the United States will be importing largely into France."—So they will and in this necessity for bread we hold France and England, too, under bonds to keep the peace with us, in order to keep the peace among their own people.

Mr. Potter, has closed his labors, as chairman of the investigating committee at Washington, for the present, having examined about 1,400 cases of persons in public stations, supposed to be more or less impregnated with secession sympathies.—But the field of investigation is not exhausted, and will be re opened on the assembling of congress.

☞ Six to eight thousand Indians are said to be a few miles south of Springfield, Missouri. Scouts report that Gen. Stirling Price, on Tuesday, was fifteen miles west of Jackson, Cedar county, and Gen. Rains at the same time within twenty miles of Greenfield, Dade county, which is west of Cedar.

There has been another skirmish near Linn Creek, resulting disastrously to the rebels.

County Convention.

At the County Convention held in this city to day, Mr. J. I. Foote, was nominated for school superintendent.

R. T. Pember, of Johnstown was nominated for county supervisor at large.

Assembly District Convention.

A convention of republican delegates from Bradford, Clinton, Johnstown and La Prairie, was held at Emerald Grove on the 22d of October, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for member of assmbly and county supervisor, for the assembly district composed of the above named towns.

H. G. McArthur was appointed chairman, and B. F. Cary secretary.

On motion the chair appointed D. G. Cheever and J. A. Chamberlain a committee on credentials.

The committee reported as delegates: J. H. Wemple, A. Fredendall, Levi Inman, and Charles Lee from Bradford; D. G. Cheever, R. P. Willard, H. Pierce and D. M. Tallman from Clinton; B. F. Cary, R. T. Pember, David Wade and E. L. Payson from Johnstown; James A. Chamberlain, John Dixon, H. G. McArthur and S. Vangalder from La Prairie.

On motion the chair appointed David Wade and Charles Lee as tellers.

The delegation from Clinton not being full, it was voted to give their delegation present the privilege of casting their full vote.

On motion the convention proceeded to an informal ballot for member of assembly.

Edward Inman received 4; Samuel Miller 5; R. T. Pember 1.

Convention then proceeded to a formal ballot, as follows:

Edward Inman received 4; Samuel Miller 8; R. T. Pember 3.

Samuel Miller having received a majority of all the votes, was on motion declared unanimously nominated.

The convention on motion proceeded to an informal ballot for county commissioner, (should be supervisor.)

Jacob Fowle received 5; B. F. Cary 3; C. C. Warner 5; P. D. Wemple 2.

Convention proceeded to a formal ballot, as follows:

Jacob Fowle 8; B. F. Cary 4; C. C. Warner 4.

Second formal ballot:

Jacob Fowle 7; B. F. Cary 8; C. C. Warner 1.

Third formal ballot:

Jacob Fowle 6; B. F. Cary 8; C. C. Warner 1.

B. F. Cary having received a majority of all the votes cast, was on motion declared unanimously nominated.

The nominees being called out responded in a few brief remarks, tendering their thanks to the convention, and accepting the nomination. After which the convention was highly entertained by a speech from J. I. Foot, A. M., as to the importance, labor and responsibility of the office of county superintendent.

War Meeting in Bradford.

BRADFORD, Oct. 19th.

According to notice given a meeting was held at the Emerald Grove school house for the purpose of obtaining volunteers for the Tredway Rifles, a company filling up at Milton, under the supervision of Pliny Norcross.

R. Cheney was chosen chairman, and J. Fowle, secretary.

Mr. Norcross being present, was called to the stand. His remarks were continued for the space of an hour, and were such as to command the strictest attention. It was acknoweldged by all present to be the best meeting of the kind held in this place.

Enlistments were solicited, and in addition to those heretofore made in this place, Mr. Oliver Crowther came forward and was forthwith sworn in.

Remarks from volunteers were called for and duly responded to by J. H. Wemple, Walter Scott and Robert Whittleton.

Messrs. P. D. Wemple and S. Scott, each having volunteer sons present, gave them appropriate advice, a part of which I here relate, as given by Mr. Scott: "Never aid in returning a fugitive slave. Open your breast to the cannnon's mouth first, and die honorably. If you do aid in returning the poor fugitives, a monument by me, shall never, never, be erected to your memory."

After many good and heart-felt expressions were given, the meeting adjourned.

F.

MILITARY ITEMS—Dr. Chapman of the 6th regiment, having been appointed brigade surgeon, Dr. A. W. Preston is commissioned as surgeon of the 6th regiment and Dr. Bartlett as 1st assistant surgeon.

The equipments for the 1st and 10th regiments and three batteries of artillery are all ready so that they can leave for their destination this week.

The 9th and 11th regiments are ordered forthwith to Louisville, Kentucky, and are expected to leave about the middle of next week. The blue uniforms for the 11th will be distributed either to-day or to-morrow. All the batteries of artillery are ordered to Louisville, Kentucky.

The Madison Journal says, Col. C. C. Washburn has been in the city for a day or two. He has the most flattering prospects for raising his regiment of cavalry within a short time. Some of the best men in the State are going into it. Mr. Washburn's personal popularity, and the confidence that is felt in him will enable him to raise a regiment second to none that has entered the service.

What a glorious world this would be if all its inhabitants could say with Shakspeare's shepherd: "Sir, I am a true laborer; I earn what I wear, owe no man hate, envy no man's happiness, glad of other men's good, content with my farm."

A courier arrived at Camp Dick Robinson, early this morning, and reports fighting on the 21st, between Zollicoffer and Col. Garrard. The latter arrived at Camp Wild Cat with 1,200 men. Zollicoffer had from 6,000 to 7,000 men, who made three different attacks during the day upon the camp, being repulsed each time with considerable loss of killed and wounded. The federal loss is four killed and twenty wounded. Just as the courier left Camp Wild Cat, the 14th Ohio regiment and a force of artillery, arrived to reinforce Garrard.

HARRISBURGH, Oct. 22.

A general order was issued immediately, on the receipt of the intelligence of the death of Col. Baker, which contained the following: It is with great regret that the commander-in-chief has learned of the death of Col. Baker, on the field of battle. Although not a citizen of Pennsylvania, he had been selected by many of her sons as their commander, and met his death while gallantly heading them into action.

The Africa has arrived with Liverpool dates to the 12th.

Advices by the Africa are up to Sunday afternoon, the 13th inst., and are consequently two days later than those received by the Ætna at New York.

COMMERCIAL.—The Liverpool breadstuff market on Friday, generally showed an advancing tendency and closed steady on Saturday. Flour firm. Wheat advanced 2d per quintal, since Tuesday.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.

The following is an extract from the correspondence of Philadelphia Exchange:—The steamer Flag was off Charleston on the 10th; yesterday we saw a ship standing in, intending to run the blockade. We pursued her; she was run ashore and all hands escaped before our taking her. We boarded her and found her to be the Lewis Watson, formerly of Philadelphia, but now owned in Charleston, from Liverpool, and laden with salt, flannel and blankets. The latter articles were taken out, and the ship fired, and was nearly consumed when the Vandalia sailed.

PILOT KNOB, Oct. 22.

Special to the St. Louis Republican.—From reliable parties who witnessed the fight at Fredericks town on the 21st, I gather the following particulars:

Col. Carlin with portions of the 21st, 33d and 38th Illinois regiments, 8th Wisconsin, Col. Baker's Indiana cavalry, and Major Schofield's battery, reached Fredericktown at 9 o'clock in the morning, and at 1 P. M. was joined by the 11th, 17th and 20th Illinois and forty cavalry from Cape Giradean. They then advanced in pursuit of the rebels under Jeff. Thompson and Col. Lowe, who had left the place twenty-four hours before, and were reported to be rapidly retreating south; but about a mile from the town they discovered the entire force of the enemy drawn up in line of battle, partly posted in an open field and partly in the adjacent woods, with four iron 8 pounders well planted in their front.

Major Schofield immediately opened fire; at the fourth round silenced one of the enemy's guns. The engagement then became general, and lasted about two hours; but after the first half hour the rebels left the field in disorder and took to the woods, closely followed by both our infantry and cavalry. Before leaving the field the rebel Col. Lowe was shot in the head and instantly killed. Major Gavitt received five bullets while leading a charge thirty yards in advance of his command. Capt. Highman was killed in the same charge.

Our loss is reported five killed, five mortally wounded, and eight hundred and twenty slightly wounded. The enemy's is not ascertained, but supposed to be considerable.

At last accounts the rebels were in full retreat with their baggage train, and our troops in pursuit.

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 22.

Special to St. Louis Democrat.—Parties direct from Warsaw say no news of importance had reached that point up to 2 o'clock yesterday. The pontoon bridge was finished.

Gov. Gamble left this forenoon for Washington.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 22.

The New Orleans Picayune of the 12th, editorially congratulates its readers on the success of Hollins' flotilla at Mississippi, and particularly the exploits of the Manassas. It also urges the southern people to be prepared to drive the northern invaders from their ports and coasts at every sacrifice and exertion.

A law of the confederate states awards to owners of privateer armed vessels, in confederate bonds, twenty per cent of the value of any United States armed public vessel and armament which they may destroy. Another law gives twenty dollars bounty for each prisoner captured on board such vessel.

The Picayune further says that only two federal vessels were to be seen at the Passes at last accounts. They were supposed to be the Richmond and Vincennes. The Niagara went eastward before the attack of Saturday. The Richmond and the Vincennes are afloat. The other sloop-of-war is not visible, and it is inferred she has sunk. The damaged one was believed to be the Preble.

The lumber landed at the head of the passes was not burned.

The Memphis Appeal learns that S. B. Buckner has been appointed a Major General.

The Galveston News says hundreds of companies, mostly cavalry, are tendering their services to Gen. Abert, for the defence of Galveston.

Telegraphic communication between New Orleans and Berwick Bay has been completed. A telegram from Berwick says, the Yankees captured on Saturday last the schooner Seavalia, with a cargo valued at $20,000.

The Mobile Tribune of the 11th, speaking of the Santa Rosa affair, says, "The coup was made with considerable loss on our side, but doubtless the federal loss much exceeded ours."

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.

The Washington Star's description of the fight at Edward's Ferry, says both wings were attacked as early as 9 A. M., but the enemy was repulsed whenever he appeared. At about 5 P. M. the right wing found itself confronted by near 40,000 of the enemy under Gen. Evans, with artillery. Gen. Baker gallantly led the charge in which he was killed.

The officer left in command immediately ordered the men to fall back near the river bank, where they could be supported by Gen. Stone and the portions of the army that had at at that time effected a crossing. The men obeyed in good order, carrying off all dead and wounded. On reaching the position selected, the right wing, though under fire of the enemy, which gradually slackened until midnight, when it ceased. Throughout the night the balance of Gen. Stone's force crossed the river and threw up temporary works that rendered his position secure, and enabled him to protect the crossing of the division of Gen. Bank's, to be effected this morning.

The object of Gen. Stone's movement was to enable his command, with Gen. Banks' position, to be safety transferred to Virginia. Evans attacked Col. Baker in front and both flanks. Col. Coggswell was probably taken prisoner.

Our information so far this forenoon, is that Gen. Banks' army arrived at Maryland landing, Edward's Ferry, last night, and have been crossing the river securely since daylight.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.

Information received here by private letters, state the loss in killed and wounded at Edward's Ferry at 175.

The main portion of Sickles' brigade is now opposite the confederate batteries, and it is said are preparing to act on the offensive against the batteries.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.

Tribune's special.—The report made by Adj't. Gen. Thomas of his recent examination into the administration of the department of the west, by Maj. Gen. Fremont, was this morning considered in a full cabinet meeting; with the reluctance which hesitates to injure a distinguished man and wound and disappoint the friends whom a popular leader gathers in his cause, all the members of the cabinet slowly pronounced their judgments, that the interest of Missouri and of the Union, required that Gen. Fremont should be superseded in his command, by Maj. Gen. Hunter. The order to this effect will be issued to-morrow.

The president was greatly afflicted by the death of Col. Baker.

Herald's dispatch.—The latest news tonight is that the whole of Gen. Stone's column has crossed the Potomac and is in full pursuit of the enemy, and that General Bank's column had reached the banks of the river and would speedily follow and support Stone. Information received tonight from Gen. Stone's command, announces that the fight was a desperate one, and that a large number were killed on both sides. Although the enemy was much stronger than Gen. Stone, he was falling back before the advance of our troops, and would have undoubtedly been totally routed but for the fall of Col. Baker, which produced a sudden confusion among our troops.

Gen. Gustavus Smith commanded the enemy, and a private despatch asserts that he was shot from his horse and carried off the field.

Gen. Banks with his command is now supporting Gen. Stone, and being a major general, is in full command.

Gen. McClellan left for Gen. Bank's head quarters in the field this morning.

It is a subject of regret that Gen. Baker should have engaged the enemy, when, according to report, he was ordered to make a reconnoisance only, with strict instructions, if attacked, to fall back and not fight.

Gen. Baker made his will on Saturday last, deposited it with Col. Webb, and when he left for the field, he said to the latter, "I shall participate in battle in forty-eight hours. If I fall I request that you take charge of my body."

An effort is making to supercede General McClellan with Gen. Halleck, who is on his way here from California. This change would create a new revolution in military and civil circles, where the greatest confidence is entertained for Gen. McClellan.

Col. Geary reports that the four men who were killed at the battle of Bolivar Heights, were afterwards charged upon by the cavalry and stabbed through the body, and stripped of all their clothing, not excepting shoes and stockings, and left in perfect nudity. One was laid out in the form of crucifixion, with his hands spread and cut through the palms with a dull knife.

Times' dispatch.—At the cabinet meeting to day, it was decided not to interfere with Gen. Fremont and his command.—Judge Davis, of Illinois, was commissioned to take testimony in reference to contracts made in the western department, and all bills that he passes will be paid.

Trustworthy information received this morning from Fairfax Court House, states that only the rebel pickets are present at that place. A small force, however, is stationed at Germantown, a mile and a half distant.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

ROLLA, Oct. 23.

Lieut. Kirby, with 15 men of Major Wright's battalion, had another fight with 15 rebels, near Linn Creek, on the 17th, killing five of them and wounding about a dozen. The result of Major Wright's march from Rolla to Linn Creek can be summed up as follows—Three successful fights, in which 60 rebels were killed, about the same number were wounded, 87 prisoners, 123 guns, 15 horses, several yoke of oxen, wagons, and many other articles.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.

The success of the movement of General Stone and General Banks across the Potomac is now established, as the enemy did not venture to make any further resistance to it yesterday. All accounts agree that our men conducted themselves nobly in the affair of Monday, even the portion of the column which received a temporary check by the death of Col. Baker, behaved gallantly, although opposed to a force of triple their number. The ground thus gained was retained in the undisturbed possession of our troops. All day, yesterday, scouts and reconnoitering parties obtained much valuable information in regard to the enemy. The above facts are derived from reliable sources.

Ashbury Dickens, late secretary of the senate for many years, died here this morning, at the age of 98.

It is understood the blankets ordered in Europe in August, by the quartermaster's department are arriving; 29,000 have already reached New York. They cost the United States 1d per pound, and weigh five pounds.

Price's army was at Greenfield last Wednesday, still headed south.

Reports from Springfield say Gen. McBride, of the rebel forces, has resigned and is on his way to that place to disband and return home.

Col. Taylor, in command of the rebel forces at Springfield, recently issued a proclamation declaring that all Union men who had belonged to the Home Guard would be required to leave the country or go into the southern army for the same length of time they had served in the federal army, and requiring a pledge from Union men now there for the exemplary conduct of their friends who are absent from home. The proclamation also prohibits carrying any more slaves south, as such a course is calculated to lessen the confidence of the people in the ability of the southern army to sustain itself in Missouri.

FORT MONROE, Oct. 22.

Gen. Sherman arrived to-day on the Atlantic. There was a slight affair at Newport News yesterday, but resulted with a slight loss on either side.

NEW YORK, 23d.

The steamship North Star from Aspinwall is coming up.

A private of the Massachusetts First, wounded at Bull Run and taken to Richmond, has arrived here. His account of the treatment of prisoners is interesting. He says the only northern paper in Richmond is the New York Herald, which is received regularly the second day after its publication.

A nolle prosequi has been entered in the case of Alf. Farris, one of the crew of the privateer Savannah, and he has been accepted as a witness. A jury is being empannelled.

Owing to a report that the Potomac is at present closed, the United States transports now loading at this port for Washington will proceed to Locust Point, where their cargo will be forwarded by railway to Washington.

Large quantities of ammunition and stores are now being shipped to St. Louis by railroad.

Colonel Joseph B. Plummer, who commanded the troops at the battle of Fredericktown, Missouri, is a native of Massachusetts, and graduate of West Point in 1841, when he entered the regular army. In 1852 he was promoted to a captaincy in the 1st infantry, and in that capacity commanded a company of regulars under Gen. Lyon at Springfield. He was a few weeks ago appointed colonel of the Missouri 11th, and placed in command at Cape Girardeau. When, therefore, the forces from Cape Girardeau and Ironton met at Fredericktown to give battle to the enemy, his rank as army officer gave him command of the whole. The troops under him numbered about 5,000, with cavalry and artillery, and their success is represented to have been complete.—Chicago Tribune.

The death of the Emperor of China is reported by the Ætna. His name was Hienfung, or Hanfung, in the Canton dialect. He was the seventh monarch of the reigning dynasty of Tsing, who succeeded in 1644 to that of the Mings. According to Chinese chronology, he was the two hundred and forty-fourth monarch who has occupied the throne of the empire in the 4,703 years of its existence. His reign commenced at the death of his father, Tankwang which occurred on the 26th of February, 1850, but out of respect for his memory, he dated his accession from the 1st of February, 1851. Hienfung was born in August, 1831, and was, therefore, thirty years of age at the time of his death. Hienfung was not his proper name, but his name of state. It signifies "perfect felicity;" a strange title for a prince who could scarcely maintain his throne against rebels.

THE ARREST OF COL. BLAIR.—The statement that Col. Blair was kept under arrest ten days after Gen. Scott's order for his release was issued, is incorrect. The order was dispatched immediately to Gen. Fremont, at Jefferson City, who lost no time in obeying it.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Jayne's Ague Mixture

Is an infallible remedy for Fever and Ague. The experience of many years in almost every climate proves that where used strictly in accordance with the directions, it has rarely failed to cure,—not only by breaking up the chills, but by removing the morbid habits of the system, preventing a recurrence of the disease.

Fever and Ague, though not in itself dangerous, is apt, unless speedily removed, to have such a pernicious effect on the system, as to engender disorders much more baneful than itself, and which not only render the after-life of the patient miserable, but are in themselves often fatal. A prompt and effectual remedy is therefore what is wanted, and as such DR. D. JAYNE'S AGUE MIXTURE is confidently recommended. For sale by O. R. CURTIS,

The War in Missouri.

The St. Louis Democrat of Tuesday morning says:—The confederates are to-day hopelessly beaten in Missouri, and their forces are fleeing hence into Arkansas.—Till a day or two since, the advices were consistent to the purport that Price was precipitately retiring from the state, in the avowed belief that a battle with Fremont would prove ruinous. It next appeared that urgent appeals from Hardee, McCulloch, Buckner and Polk, accompanied with assurances of reinforcement, had induced the retreating General "to make a stand."—They told him that to leave the state would be to lose it, and to permit Fremont to move resistlessly through Arkansas and into Kentucky and Tennessee. The intelligence now is that Price is again disappointed, and is continuing his flight.—Wanting the aid pledged him at Lexington, he fled opportunely thence, and now unsupported, as in his exigency he deems indispensable, he chooses humanely the ruin of his cause, without a battle to its equally inevitable destruction with one. So much of Price's demoralized army as remains with him will doubtless be persuaded into Arkansas, and thence routed or scattered.—The federal army of the west has at last opening before it the fair programme of moving down the great valley to co operate with the federal navies on the Gulf.

Secretary Cameron's Order to General Fremont.

We have heretofore published the following, but as its authenticity is not denied, we give it as a part of the history of the times:

The following is a copy of the very important order issued by the secretrry of war before he left St. Louis, and after he had visited Gen. Fremont at Tipton:

"ST. LOUIS, MO., Oct. 14.

"GENERAL: The secretary of war directs me to communicate the following as his instructions for your government:

"In view of the heavy sums due, especially in the quartermaster's department in this city, amounting to some $4,500,000, it is important that the money which may now be in the hands of the disbursing officers, or be received by them, be applied to the current expenses of your army in Missouri, and these debts to remain unpaid until thep can be properly examined and sent to Washington for settlement; the disbursing officers of the army to disburse the funds, and not transfer them to irresponsible agents—in other words, those who do not hold commissions from the president, and are not under bonds. All contracts necessary to be made are to be made by the disbursing officers. The senior quartermaster here has been verbally instructed by the secretary as above.

"It is deemed unnecessary to erect field-works around this city, and you will direct their discontinuance; also those, if any, in course of construction at Jefferson City. In this connection, it is seen that a number of commissions have been given by you. No payment will be made to such officers, except to those confirmed by the president. This, of course, does not apply to the officers with volunteer troops. Col. Andrews has been verbally so instructed by the secretary; also, not to make transfers of funds, except for the purpose of paying the troops.

"The erection of barracks near your quarters in this city to be at once discontinued.

"The secretary has been informed that the troops of Gen. Lane's command are committing depredations on our friends in Western Missouri. Your attention is directed to this, in the expectation that you will apply the corrective.

"Major Allen desires the services of Captain Turnley for a short time, and the secretary hopes you may find it proper to accede thereto.

"I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
"Your obedient servant,

"Major General JOHN C. FREMONT, commanding department of the west, Tipton, Missouri."

This order is disgraceful to the secretary of war, and not to Gen. Fremont. It is rather a compliment to the latter. Evidently the secretary is dissatisfied with Fremont, and if the insinuations contained in this document are true, Gen. Fremont should be removed. But the war department does not dare to displace him. The ebullitions of spleen against him in this order are the mutterings and fault-findings of imbecility against a superior power. Fremont will look down upon it in that light from his superior elevation, and will treat it with the contempt it deserves.

The amount expended by Fremont, $4,500,000, will not astound the people at all considering the vast sums expended elsewhere, and taking into view the work performed in Missouri; but by removing the place of settlement of the accounts of the western department from St. Louis to Washington, a nice per centage will be made by somebody in buying them up.

The irregularity of Gen. Fremont's appointments is not greater than is constantly occurring in this war everywhere. The administration knew that Fremont must have officers and munitions. If they did not desire him to use his authority in the manner he has, why did they not supply him from Washington? Why so late in discovering his proceedings? They knew every day what he was doing; but it will be remembered that no fault was found with him until the Blair quarrel. His proceedings were all regular until F. P. Blair, Jr., ascertained that he was not to control everything, making Fremont a mere cat's-paw.

An unworthy imputation is contained in the discontinuance of barracks "near your residence"; as if they were placed in that position to protect the commanding general, who is exposing himself in a distant part of the state. There may be some courtly phrase at Washington to designate such a thing—but we have not learned it "out west"—we here call it mean.

The paltry insinuation about Gen. Lane is in perfect keeping with the whole order. He carries on the war in earnest, which is not the policy at Washington. His hands are not covered with cotton when he touches the enemy, and he does not regard traitors as "friends." This is his offence.

This order will not be regarded as a creditable production on the part of the secretary of war, in the future history that is to be written of this contest. He will occupy a small space in it compared with the man whom he assails.

THE BATTLE OF BOLIVAR.—The Milwaukee Sentinel publishes a letter from Frederick, Md., giving an account of a serious fight at Bolivar, near Harper's Ferry, on the 16th, in which three companies of the Wisconsin third distinguished themselves. Companies A, C, and H, of that regiment were sent to Harper's Ferry on the 9th, for the purpose of securing 30,000 bushels of wheat, and conveying it across the Potomac. On the morning of the 10th they were attacked by about sixty horsemen, but succeeded in driving them off, killing two of the enemy. From that time until the 16th they were unmolested and succeeded in conveying all the wheat across the river but about 1000 bushels. On the morning of the 16th our troops, together with detachments from the Massachusetts 13th and Pennsylvania 28th, were attacked by a large force, some five or six hundred, who had two cannon, one a 32-pounder, Columbiad. After fighting two hours and capturing the Columbiad, they were forced to retire to Bolivar, leaving the captured gun.

After gaining Bolivar, recruiting their cartridge boxes, and resting a short time, they formed a line and advanced upon the enemy again, having now the aid of a piece of artillery. When they arrived within view of the 32-pounder again, they found it deserted. The enemy fired a few shots at them and retired.

Our boys took their captured cannon across the river with them. The loss was three men killed, one taken prisoner, and six or seven wounded. The name of one Wisconsin soldier is mentioned among the killed—Mosher, of company C. The correspondent pays a high compliment to the Massachusetts soldiers, but two companies of the Pennsylvanians retreated. This was a brilliant affair, and the conduct of our Wisconsin troops is much landed.

MORE SUPERSEDING.—The special correspondents of the New York papers again inform us by telegraph that Gen. Fremont has been superseded; and that he has not.

If the administration knew how detrimental such rumors are to the Union cause in the west, they would put an end to the public suspense in this matter.

We see that these correspondents have commenced superseding Gen. McClellan, also. Let this be stopped at once. The people will lose all confidence in the government, if they are to be continually excited by doubts created in this manner.

THE CRY FOR BREAD IN FRANCE.—The London Times says that France will be compelled to spend forty millions sterling, or, in round numbers, two hundred millions of dollars, to make up the deficiencies in her domestic bread crops of this year, and that both "Canada and the United States will be importing largely into France."—So they will and in this necessity for bread we hold France and England, too, under bonds to keep the peace with us, in order to keep the peace among their own people.

Mr. Potter, has closed his labors, as chairman of the investigating committee at Washington, for the present, having examined about 1,400 cases of persons in public stations, supposed to be more or less impregnated with secession sympathies.—But the field of investigation is not exhausted, and will be re-opened on the assembling of congress.

☞ Six to eight thousand Indians are said to be a few miles south of Springfield, Missouri. Scouts report that Gen. Stirling Price, on Tuesday, was fifteen miles west of Jackson, Cedar county, and Gen. Rains at the same time within twenty miles of Greenfield, Dade county, which is west of Cedar.

There has been another skirmish near Linn Creek, resulting disastrously to the rebels.

Assembly District Convention.

A convention of republican delegates from Bradford, Clinton, Johnstown and La Prairie, was held at Emerald Grove on the 22d of October, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for member of assembly and county supervisor, for the assembly district composed of the above named towns.

H. G. McArthur was appointed chairman, and B. F. Cary secretary.

On motion the chair appointed D. G. Cheever and J. A. Chamberlain a committee on credentials.

The committee reported as delegates: J. H. Wemple, A. Fredendall, Levi Inman, and Charles Lee from Bradford; D. G. Cheever, R. P. Willard, H. Pierce and D. M. Tallman from Clinton; B. F. Cary, R. T. Pember, David Wade and E. L. Payson from Johnstown; James A. Chamberlain, John Dixon, H. G. McArthur and S. Vangalder from La Prairie.

On motion the chair appointed David Wade and Charles Lee as tellers.

The delegation from Clinton not being full, it was voted to give their delegation present the privilege of casting their full vote.

On motion the convention proceeded to an informal ballot for member of assembly.

Edward Inman received 4; Samuel Miller 5; R. T. Pember 4.

Convention then proceeded to a formal ballot, as follows:

Edward Inman received 4; Samuel Miller 8; R. T. Pember 3.

Samuel Miller having received a majority of all the votes, was on motion declared unanimously nominated.

The convention on motion proceeded to an informal ballot for county commissioner, (should be supervisor.)

Jacob Fowle received 5; B. F. Cary 3; C. C. Warner 5; P. D. Wemple 2.

Convention proceeded to a formal ballot, as follows:

Jacob Fowle 8; B. F. Cary 4; C. C. Warner 4.

Second formal ballot:

Jacob Fowle 7; B. F. Cary 8; C. C. Warner 1.

Third formal ballot:

Jacob Fowle 6; B. F. Cary 8; C. C. Warner 1.

B. F. Cary having received a majority of all the votes cast, was on motion declared unanimously nominated.

The nominees being called out responded in a few brief remarks, tendering their thanks to the convention, and accepting the nomination. After which the convention was highly entertained by a speech from J. I. Foot, A. M., as to the importance, labor and responsibility of the office of county superintendent.

War Meeting in Bradford.

BRADFORD, Oct. 19th.

According to notice given a meeting was held at the Emerald Grove school house, for the purpose of obtaining volunteers for the Tredway Rifles, a company filling up at Milton, under the supervision of Pliny Norcross.

R. Cheney was chosen chairman, and J. Fowle, secretary.

Mr. Norcross being present, was called to the stand. His remarks were continued for the space of an hour, and were such as to command the strictest attention. It was acknoweldged by all present to be the best meeting of the kind held in this place.

Enlistments were solicited, and in addition to those heretofore made in this place, Mr. Oliver Crowther came forward and was forthwith sworn in.

Remarks from volunteers were called for and duly responded to by J. H. Wemple, Walter Scott and Robert Whittleton.

Messrs. P. D. Wemple and S. Scott, each having volunteer sons present, gave them appropriate advice, a part of which I here relate, as given by Mr. Scott: "Never aid in returning a fugitive slave. Open your breast to the cannnon's mouth first, and die honorably. If you do aid in returning the poor fugitives, a monument by me, shall never, never, be erected to your memory."

After many good and heart-felt expressions were given, the meeting adjourned.

F.

MILITARY ITEMS—Dr. Chapman of the 6th regiment, having been appointed brigade surgeon, Dr. A. W. Preston is commissioned as surgeon of the 6th regiment and Dr. Bartlett as 1st assistant surgeon.

The equipments for the 1st and 10th regiments and three batteries of artillery are all ready so that they can leave for their destination this week.

The 9th and 11th regiments are ordered forthwith to Louisville, Kentucky, and are expected to leave about the middie of next week. The blue uniforms for the 11th will be distributed either to-day or to-morrow. All the batteries of artillery are ordered to Louisville, Kentucky.

The Madison Journal says, Col. C. C. Washburn has been in the city for a day or two. He has the most flattering prospects for raising his regiment of cavalry within a short time. Some of the best men in the State are going into it. Mr. Washburn's personal popularity, and the confidence that is felt in him will enable him to raise a regiment second to none that has entered the service.

What a glorious world this would be if all its inhabitants could say with Shakspeare's shepherd: "Sir, I am a true laborer; I earn what I wear, owe no man hate, envy no man's happiness, glad of other men's good, content with my farm."

Gen. Harney still remains in this city, but it is reported that he will soon be assigned to active service.

The court to-day made an order citing Gen. Porter to appear and show cause, why he had ordered the arrest of Judge Merrick, and thus obstructing the course of justice.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.

A fire broke out this foreuoon in the extensive cotton mill of Solomon & Co.—Loss undoubtedly heavy, but has not yet been ascertained.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 22.

A courier arrived at Camp Dick Robinson, early this morning, and reports fighting on the 21st, between Zollicoffer and Col. Garrard. The latter arrived at Camp Wild Cat with 1,200 men. Zollicoffer had from 6,000 to 7,000 men, who made three different attacks during the day upon the camp, being repulsed each time with considerable loss of killed and wounded. The federal loss is four killed and twenty wounded. Just as the courier left Camp Wild Cat, the 14th Ohio regiment and a force of artillery, arrived to reinforce Garrard.

HARRISBURGH, Oct. 22.

A general order was issued immediately, on the receipt of the intelligence of the death of Col. Baker, which contained the following: It is with great regret that the commander-in-chief has learned of the death of Col. Baker, on the field of battle. Although not a citizen of Pennsylvania, he had been selected by many of her sons as their commander, and met his death while gallantly heading them into action.

ST. JOHNS, Oct. 22.

The Africa has arrived with Liverpool dates to the 12th.

Advices by the Africa are up to Sunday afternoon, the 13th inst., and are consequently two days later than those received by the Ætna at New York.

COMMERCIAL.—The Liverpool breadstuff market on Friday, generally showed an advancing tendency and closed steady on Saturday. Flour firm. Wheat advanced 2d per quintal, since Tuesday.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.

The following is an extract from the correspondence of Philadelphia Exchange:—The steamer Flag was off Charleston on the 10th; yesterday we saw a ship standing in, intending to run the blockade. We pursued her; she was run ashore and all hands escaped before our taking her. We boarded her and found her to be the Lewis Watson, formerly of Philadelphia, but now owned in Charleston, from Liverpool, and laden with salt, flannel and blankets. The latter articles were taken out, and the ship fired, and was nearly consumed when the Vandalia sailed.

PILOT KNOB, Oct. 22.

Special to the St. Louis Republican.—From reliable parties who witnessed the fight at Frederickstown on the 21st, I gather the following particulars:

Col. Carlin with portions of the 21st, 33d and 38th Illinois regiments, 8th Wisconsin, Col. Baker's Indiana cavalry, and Major Schofield's battery, reached Fredericktown at 9 o'clock in the morning, and at 1 P. M. was joined by the 11th, 17th and 20th Illinois and forty cavalry from Cape Giradeau. They then advanced in pursuit of the rebels under Jeff. Thompson and Col. Lowe, who had left the place twenty-four hours before, and were reported to be rapidly retreating south; but about a mile from the town they discovered the entire force of the enemy drawn up in line of battle, partly posted in an open field and partly in the adjacent woods, with four iron 8-pounders well planted in their front.

Major Schofield immediately opened fire; at the fourth round silenced one of the enemy's guns. The engagement then became general, and lasted about two hours; but after the first half hour the rebels left the field in disorder and took to the woods, closely followed by both our infantry and cavalry. Before leaving the field the rebel Col. Lowe was shot in the head and instantly killed. Major Gavitt received five bullets while leading a charge thirty yards in advance of his command. Capt. Highman was killed in the same charge.

Our loss is reported five killed, five mortally wounded, and eight hundred and twenty slightly wounded. The enemy's is not ascertained, but supposed to be considerable.

At last accounts the rebels were in full retreat with their baggage train, and our troops in pursuit.

JEFERSON CITY, Oct. 22.

Special to St. Louis Democrat.—Parties direct from Warsaw say no news of importance had reached that point up to 2 o'clock yesterday. The pontoon bridge was finished.

Gov. Gamble left this forenoon for Washington.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 22.

The New Orleans Picayune of the 12th editorially congratulates its readers on the success of Hollins' flotilla at Mississippi, and particularly the exploits of the Manassas. It also urges the southern people to be prepared to drive the northern invaders from their ports and coasts at every sacrifice and exertion.

A law of the confederate states awards to owners of privateer armed vessels, in confederate bonds, twenty per cent of the value of any United States armed public vessel and armament which they may destroy. Another law gives twenty dollars bounty for each prisoner captured on board such vessel.

The Picayune further says that only two federal vessels were to be seen at the Passes at last accounts. They were supposed to be the Richmond and Vincennes. The Niagara went eastward before the attack of Saturday. The Richmond and the Vincennes are afloat. The other sloop-of-war is not visible, and it is inferred she has sunk. The damaged one was believed to be the Preble.

The lumber landed at the head of the passes was not burned.

The Memphis Appeal learns that S. B. Buckner has been appointed a Major General.

The Galveston News says hundreds of companies, mostly cavalry, are tendering their services to Gen. Abert, for the defence of Galveston.

Telegraphic communication between New Orleans and Berwick Bay has been completed. A telegram from Berwick says, the Yankees captured on Saturday last the schooner Seavalia, with a cargo valued at $20,000.

The Mobile Tribune of the 11th, speaking of the Santa Rosa affair, says, "The coup was made with considerable loss on our side, but doubtless the federal loss much exceeded ours."

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.

The Washington Star's description of the fight at Edward's Ferry, says both wings were attacked as early as 9 A. M., but the enemy was repulsed whenever he appeared. At about 5 P. M. the right wing found itself confronted by near 40,000 of the enemy under Gen. Evans, with artillery. Gen. Baker gallantly led the charge in which he was killed.

The officer left in command immediately ordered the men to fall back near the river bank, where they could be supported by Gen. Stone and the portions of the army that had at at that time effected a crossing. The men obeyed in good order, carrying off all dead and wounded. On reaching the position selected, the right wing, though under fire of the enemy, which gradually slackened until midnight, when it ceased. Throughout the night the balance of Gen. Stone's force crossed the river and threw up temporary works that rendered his position secure, and enabled him to protect the crossing of the division of Gen. Bank's, to be effected this morning.

The object of Gen. Stone's movement was to enable his command, with Gen. Banks' position, to be safety transferred to Virginia. Evans attacked Col. Baker in front and both flanks. Col. Coggswell was probably taken prisoner.

Our information so far this forenoon, is that Gen. Banks' army arrived at Maryland landing, Edward's Ferry, last night, and have been crossing the river securely since daylight.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.

Information received here by private letters, state the loss in killed and wounded at Edward's Ferry at 176.

The main portion of Sickles' brigade is now opposite the confederate batteries, and it is said are preparing to act on the offensive against the batteries.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.

Tribune's special.—The report made by Adj't. Gen. Thomas of his recent examination into the administration of the department of the west, by Maj. Gen. Fremont, was this morning considered in a full cabinet meeting; with the reluctance which hesitates to injure a distinguished man and wound and disappoint the friends whom a popular leader gathers in his cause, all the members of the cabinet slowly pronounced their judgments, that the interest of Missouri and of the Union, required that Gen. Fremont should be superseded in his command, by Maj. Gen. Hunter. The order to this effect will be issued to-morrow.

The president was greatly afflicted by the death of Col. Baker.

Herald's dispatch.—The latest news to-night is that the whole of Gen. Stone's column has crossed the Potomac and is in full pursuit of the enemy, and that General Bank's column had reached the banks of the river and would speedily follow and support Stone. Information received to-night from Gen. Stone's command, announces that the fight was a desperate one, and that a large number were killed on both sides. Although the enemy was much stronger than Gen. Stone, he was falling back before the advance of our troops, and would have undoubtedly been totally routed but for the fall of Col. Baker, which produced a sudden confusion among our troops.

Gen. Gustavus Smith commanded the enemy, and a private despatch asserts that he was shot from his horse and carried off the field.

Gen. Banks with his command is now supporting Gen. Stone, and being a major general, is in full command.

Gen. McClellan left for Gen. Bank's head quarters in the field this morning.

It is a subject of regret that Gen. Baker should have engaged the enemy, when, according to report, he was ordered to make a reconnoisance only, with strict instructions, if attacked, to fall back and not fight.

Gen. Baker made his will on Saturday last, deposited it with Col. Webb, and when he left for the field, he said to the latter, "I shall participate in battle in forty-eight hours. If I fall I request that you take charge of my body."

An effort is making to supercede General McClellan with Gen. Halleck, who is on his way here from California. This change would create a new revolution in military and civil circles, where the greatest confidence is entertained for Gen. McClellan.

Col. Geary reports that the four men who were killed at the battle of Bolivar Heights, were afterwards charged upon by the cavalry and stabbed through the body, and stripped of all their clothing, not excepting shoes and stockings, and left in perfect nudity. One was laid out in the form of crucifixion, with his hands spread and cut through the palms with a dull knife.

Times' dispatch.—At the cabinet meeting to day, it was decided not to interfere with Gen. Fremont and his command.—Judge Davis, of Illinois, was commissioned to take testimony in reference to contracts made in the western department, and all bills that he passes will be paid.

Trustworthy information received this morning from Fairfax Court House, states that only the rebel pickets are present at that place. A small force, however, is stationed at Germantown, a mile and a half distant.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

ROLLA, Oct. 23.

Lieut. Kirby, with 15 men of Major Wright's battallion, had another fight with 45 rebels, near Linn Creek, on the 17th, killing five of them and wounding about a dozen. The result of Major Wright's march from Rolla to Linn Creek can be summed up as follows—Three successful fights, in which 60 rebels were killed, about the same number were wounded, 87 prisoners, 123 guns, 15 horses, several yoke of oxen, wagons, and many other articles.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.

The success of the movement of General Stone and General Banks across the Potomac is now established, as the enemy did not venture to make any further resistance to it yesterday. All accounts agree that our men conducted themselves nobly in the affair of Monday, even the portion of the column which received a temporary check by the death of Col. Baker, behaved gallantly, although opposed to a force of triple their number. The ground thus gained was retained in the undisturbed possession of our troops. All day, yesterday, scouts and reconnoitering parties obtained much valuable information in regard to the enemy. The above facts are derived from reliable sources.

Ashbury Dickens, late secretary of the senate for many years, died here this morning, at the age of 98.

It is understood the blankets ordered in Europe in August, by the quartermaster's department are arriving; 29,000 have already reached New York. They cost the United States 4d per pound, and weigh five pounds.

Price's army was at Greenfield last Wednesday, still headed south.

Reports from Springfield say Gen. McBride, of the rebel forces, has resigned and is on his way to that place to disband and return home.

Col. Taylor, in command of the rebel forces at Springfield, recently issued a proclamation declaring that all Union men who had belonged to the Home Guard would be required to leave the country or go into the southern army for the same length of time they had served in the federal army, and requiring a pledge from Union men now there for the exemplary conduct of their friends who are absent from home. The proclamation also prohibits carrying any more slaves south, as such a course is calculated to lessen the confidence of the people in the ability of the southern army to sustain itself in Missouri.

FORT MONROE, Oct. 22.

Gen. Sherman arrived to-day on the Atlantic. There was a slight affair at Newport News yesterday, but resulted with a slight loss on either side.

NEW YORK, 23d.

The steamship North Star from Aspinwall is coming up.

A private of the Massachusetts First, wounded at Bull Run and taken to Richmond, has arrived here. His account of the treatment of prisoners is interesting. He says the only northern paper in Richmond is the New York Herald, which is received regularly the second day after its publication.

A nolle prosequi has been entered in the case of Alf. Farris, one of the crew of the privateer Savannah, and he has been accepted as a witness. A jury is being empannelled.

Owing to a report that the Potomac is at present closed, the United States transports now loading at this port for Washington will proceed to Locust Point, where their cargo will be forwarded by railway to Washington.

Large quantities of ammunition and stores are now being shipped to St. Louis by railroad.

The Markets.

Wheat receipts 239,018 bush.; market 1a2c better with good export demand; 150,000 bush 1,18a1,20 Chicago spring, 1,20a1,23 Milwaukee club, 1,23½a1,25 amber Iowa.

Colonel Joseph B. Plummer, who commanded the troops at the battle of Fredericktown, Missouri, is a native of Massachusetts, and graduate of West Point in 1841, when he entered the regular army. In 1852 he was promoted to a captaincy in the 1st infantry, and in that capacity commanded a company of regulars under Gen. Lyon at Springfield. He was a few weeks ago appointed colonel of the Missouri 11th, and placed in command at Cape Girardeau. When, therefore, the forces from Cape Girardeau and Ironton met at Fredericktown to give battle to the enemy, his rank as army officer gave him command of the whole. The troops under him numbered about 5,000, with cavalry and artillery, and their success is represented to have been complete.—Chicago Tribune.

The death of the Emperor of China is reported by the Ætna. His name was Hienfung, or Hanfung, in the Canton dialect. He was the seventh monarch of the reigning dynasty of Tsing, who succeeded in 1644 to that of the Mings. According to Chinese chronology, he was the two hundred and forty-fourth monarch who has occupied the throne of the empire in the 4,703 years of its existence. His reign commenced at the death of his father, Tankwang, which occurred on the 26th of February, 1850, but out of respect for his memory, he dated his accession from the 1st of February, 1851. Hienfung was born in August, 1831, and was, therefore, thirty years of age at the time of his death. Hienfung was not his proper name, but his name of state. It signifies "perfect felicity;" a strange title for a prince who could scarcely maintain his throne against rebels.

THE ARREST OF COL. BLAIR.—The statement that Col. Blair was kept under arrest ten days after Gen. Scott's order for his release was issued, is incorrect. The order was dispatched immediately to Gen. Fremont, at Jefferson City, who lost no time in obeying it.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Jayne's Ague Mixture

Is an infallible remedy for Fever and Ague. The experience of many years in almost every climate proves that where used strictly in accordance with the directions, it has rarely failed to cure,—not only by breaking up the chills, but by removing the morbid habits of the system, preventing a recurrence of the disease. Fever and Ague, though not in itself dangerous, is apt, unless speedily removed, to have such a pernicious effect on the system, as to engender disorders much more baneful than itself, and which not only render the afterlife of the patient miserable, but are in themselves often fatal. A prompt and effectual remedy is therefore what is wanted, and as such DR. D. JAYNE'S AGUE MIXTURE is confidently recommended. For sale by G. R. CURTIS,

Adjourned.

W. A. LAWRENCE, Chn.

I. JUSTIN, Jr., Secy.

The ladies who have assisted or are willing to assist in furnishing comforts for our soldiers, are invited to meet on Thursday, the 24th inst., at two o'clock P. M., in the basement of the Baptist church.

The ladies have had four meetings during the month, and though the attendance has not been large, they have by subscription and through the labors of committees raised the sum of ten dollars and sixty cents, besides a large amount of clothing and necessaries for hospital use.

It is hoped that measures may be adopted for a more complete and extended organization, and efficient co operation with the sanitary board.

The occasion demands a patient continuance in well doing. Let the spirit which animated the daughters of the Revolution stir every woman's heart, till their untiring efforts shall carry sympathy and comfort to the pillow of every suffering soldier.

BENEFIT OF ADVERTISING.—On the night of the 11th inst., Geo. Mansfield, of this city, had his buggy stolen. As soon as his loss was discovered he repaired to this office and had a lot of bills printed describing it minutely, and promptly mailed a copy to every sheriff in the state. In a few days he received a letter from the sheriff of Crawford county, stating he had taken such a buggy from a man arrested there for stealing a sett of double harness. Constable Gillett, of this city, immediately went to Prairie du Chien, and returned last night with the buggy and a lot of other property stolen in this city. Thus by an investment of twelve scillings he has recovered his property and that of other parties also, who were too prudent to invest any thing in that way.

A FINE PIANO FOR SALE.—Mr. Geo. F. Lane has a fine seven octave piano forte for sale. It is of beautiful finish, and for tone has few if any superiors. The instrument is of Boston make, and is warranted equal to the best manufactured. It will be sold at a price not exceeding Boston wholesale prices, and that within thirty days. Any one desiring to purchase a valuable piano for little money cannot do better than to buy of Mr. Lane. Mr. L.'s residence is near the corner of High and School streets See his advertisement.

THE BATTLE AT FREDERICKTOWN.—We have the following additional particulars of the fight at Fredricktown, Mo., which is on the direct route between Ironton and Cape Girardeau, distant from the former some twenty miles, and from the latter about fifty. On Friday last Col. Plummer left Cape Girardeau with 2,500 men, nearly his entire command, and met at Fredricktown the troops from Ironton, under Col. Carlin, who co operated with him in the attack.

The whole force when commanded, was under command of Col. Plummer, and numbered about 5000 men, a portion of each division having been left at home as gaurd.

The expedition was ordered to move by Gen. Fremont, through Capt. McKeever, the Assistant Adjutant General at St Louis.

Our loss was six killed and sixty wounded. A flag of truce came in from the enemy, for Col. Lowe's body. They acknowledge a loss of two hundred killed and wounded, but it must have been larger. Many of their dead are yet on the field.

The enemy's cannon were badly managed, their shot having little effect. Thompson got information of the movements of our troops by capturing a bearer of dispatches from Col. Plummer to Col. Carlin. The Missouri 11th had one killed and twenty-eight wounded; the 1st Indiana cavalry had one killed and wenty eight woounded; the Wisconsin eighth none.—When our troops entered Fredericktown the inhabitants said Thompson had gone to Greenville, when really he had taken a position about one mile from town. Their intention was to run our troops into an ambush. These lies of the inhabitants so enraged our troops that they pretty effectually gutted the town, and burned one third of it. The enemy at last accounts were being pursued southward.

Happiness grows at our own firesides—and is not to be picked up in a stranger's garden.

From the Fifth Regiment.

CAMP AT MCCALL'S HILL, NEAR LEWINSVILLE, VA., Oct. 10th, 1861.

The bloody, head-strong fifth is still in the land of the rebels, and company E at the head of all. We were out on picket at Lewinsville day before yesterday, and saw the rebels in full view. They were scouting near us, and came to a house about a mile distant and halted. The cavalry went out to see them, but they ran back into the woods again in double quick time. Capt. Clark, of company A, went outside our lines that day, with his company, and got a number of cattle and horses. The cattle his men took from under the rebel guns, and the rebel scouts kept up a constant fire upon them while they were getting the cattle. The most of the stock was nice. The rebels tried, near night, to drive in our picket about a mile from where we were, but without success.

The village of Lewinsville is deserted nearly all who ever lived there. There is one loyal man who was taken prisoner by the rebels once, and confined for a time at Fairfax Court House, but who, at length, got away and now keeps a grocery there. He reports the rebels to be deficient in only three things, those are shoes, sugar and salt. He saw no shoes in the army stores there, and the men were nearly or entirely barefooted; salt was four dollars per bushel, and but little to be had at even that price; sugar was nearly as scarce, and proportionately dear. He says the rebel leaders fear our blockade more than they do our army, but they may fear the army before we are done with them.

Companies B, C, H and A were out yesterday after forage, and to find out the location of the enemy. They tried hard to get the enemy to show themselves, but except a few scouts they saw none. They drove a scouting party of rebels away from a house where they would lie concealed and fire on our scouts when they came within a mile or less of the place. After the rebels were gone, our men fired the house, all of the out buildings, a quantity of hay and grain in the stack, took a number of beef cattle, and returned to camp.

The rebels tried this morning to cut off a reserve picket of Major Stevens', but they were not successful. We formed the line of battle about two o'clock this morning, but there was no further alarm.

Gen. Hancock says, that the fifth Wisconsin is the most fearless set of men he ever saw. He ordered some boys who were in a cabbage patch to fall in line, and as a means of hurrying them, told them the rebels were coming, but he said the boys only looked up and then finished their eating.

We did some fine battalion drilling the other day, when the whole regiment was here The general said he never saw before as fine a line and and as good marching of a regiment as we did that day. The boys of the Maine regiment all give up that we are far ahead of them in every respect. They fairly envy us, our band, and our discipline. There is nothing that exceeds the coolness of the boys when there is a prospect of a fight; when the long roll is beat they go to work, buckle on their cartridge boxes, fill their haversacks, and then fall in line and wait orders. There is no hasty moving, but all are perfectly cool We are expecting a chance to try the rebels here before long, and then the boys will give a good account of themselves. They are ready and willing, and are spoiling for a fight. We are in hopes to get our desire of a battle before long.

Dr. Palmer was here last Sunday, and reports the seventh as being all well. He certainly looks rugged.

Yours truly,

J. M. KIMBALL.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.—We shall never tire of praising D. B. De Land & Co's Chemical Saleratus. We hail its advent with joy as we have long been out of patience with the inferior stuff that has spoilt our bread, biscuit, cakes, &c. D. B. De Land & Co. ought to draw a pension for introducing this wholesome article before the world. It is now for sale by most dealers in the country.

FINE POTATOES.—We have been shown a very fine sample of the English Fluke potatoe, raised by R. A. Hawley, of the town of Center. They are the third crop raised in this country, and are of a superior quality and flavor. Mr. Hawley has them for sale in limited quantities.

The following delegates were present:

The following assembly district committee was appointed for the ensuing year:—S. J. M. Putnam chairman, Hiram Bowen, J. Baxter, S. Foord, Jr., G. S. Strasberger.

Adjourned.

W. A. LAWRENCE, Chn.

I. JUSTIN, JR., Secy.

The ladies who have assisted or are willing to assist in furnishing comforts for our soldiers, are invited to meet on Thursday, the 24th inst., at two o'clock P. M., in the basement of the Baptist church.

The ladies have had four meetings during the month, and though the attendance has not been large, they have by subscription and through the labors of committees raised the sum of ten dollars and sixty cents, besides a large amount of clothing and necessaries for hospital use.

It is hoped that measures may be adopted for a more complete and extended organization, and efficient co-operation with the sanitary board.

The occasion demands a patient continuance in well doing. Let the spirit which animated the daughters of the Revolution stir every woman's heart, till their untiring efforts shall carry sympathy and comfort to the pillow of every suffering soldier. *

BENEFIT OF ADVERTISING.—On the night of the 11th inst., Geo. Mansfield, of this city, had his buggy stolen. As soon as his loss was discovered he repaired to this office and had a lot of bills printed describing it minutely, and promptly mailed a copy to every sheriff in the state. In a few days he received a letter from the sheriff of Crawford county, stating he had taken such a buggy from a man arrested there for stealing a sett of double harness. Constable Gillett, of this city, immediately went to Prairie du Chien, and returned last night with the buggy and a lot of other property stolen in this city. Thus by an investment of twelve seillings he has recovered his property and that of other parties also, who were too prudent to invest any thing in that way.

A FINE PIANO FOR SALE.—Mr. Geo. F. Lane has a fine seven octave piano forte for sale. It is of beautiful finish, and for tone has few if any superiors. The instrument is of Boston make, and is warranted equal to the best manufactured. It will be sold at a price not exceeding Boston wholesale prices, and that within thirty days. Any one desiring to purchase a valuable piano for little money cannot do better than to buy of Mr. Lane. Mr. L.'s residence is near the corner of High and School streets. See his advertisement.

THE BATTLE AT FREDRICKTOWN.—We have the following additional particulars of the fight at Fredricktown, Mo., which is on the direct route between Ironton and Cape Girardeau, distant from the former some twenty miles, and from the latter about fifty. On Friday last Col. Plummer left Cape Girardeau with 2,500 men, nearly his entire command, and met at Fredricktown the troops from Ironton, under Col. Carlin, who co operated with him in the attack.

The whole force when combined, was under command of Col. Plummer, and numbered about 5000 men, a portion of each division having been left at home as gaurd.

The expedition was ordered to move by Gen. Fremont, through Capt. McKeever, the Assistant Adjutant General at St Louis.

Our loss was six killed and sixty wounded. A flag of truce came in from the enemy, for Col. Lowe's body. They acknowledge a loss of two hundred killed and wounded, but it must have been larger. Many of their dead are yet on the field.

The enemy's cannon were badly managed, their shot having little effect. Thompson got information of the movements of our troops by capturing a bearer of dispatches from Col. Plummer to Col. Carlin. The Missouri 11th had one killed and twenty-eight wounded; the 1st Indiana cavalry had one killed and twenty-eight wounded; the Wisconsin eighth none.—When our troops entered Fredericktown the inhabitants said Thompsan had gone to Greenville, when really he had taken a position about one mile from town. Their intention was to run our troops into an ambush. These lies of the inhabitants so enraged our troops that they pretty effectually gutted the town, and burned one third of it. The enemy at last accounts were being pursued southward.

Happiness grows at our own firesides—and is not to be picked up in a stranger's garden.

From the Fifth Regiment.

CAMP AT MCCALL'S HILL,
near LEWINSVILLE, Va., Oct. 16th, 1861.

The bloody, head-strong fifth is still in the land of the rebels, and company E at the head of all. We were out on picket at Lewinsville day before yesterday, and saw the rebels in full view. They were scouting near us, and came to a house about a mile distant and halted. The cavalry went out to see them, but they ran back into the woods again in double-quick time. Capt. Clark, of company A, went outside our lines that day, with his company, and got a number of cattle and horses. The cattle his men took from under the rebel guns, and the rebel scouts kept up a constant fire upon them while they were getting the cattle. The most of the stock was nice. The rebels tried, near night, to drive in our picket about a mile from where we were, but without success.

The village of Lewinsville is deserted by nearly all who ever lived there. There is one loyal man who was taken prisoner by the rebels once, and confined for a time at Fairfax Court House, but who, at length, got away and now keeps a grocery there. He reports the rebels to be deficient in only three things, those are shoes, sugar and salt. He saw no shoes in the army stores there, and the men were nearly or entirely barefooted; salt was four dollars per bushel, and but little to be had at even that price; sugar was nearly as scarce, and proportionately dear. He says the rebel leaders fear our blockade more than they do our army, but they may fear the army before we are done with them.

Companies B, C, H and A were out yesterday after forage, and to find out the location of the enemy. They tried hard to get the enemy to show themselves, but except a few scouts they saw none. They drove a scouting party of rebels away from a house where they would lie concealed and fire on our scouts when they came within a mile or less of the place. After the rebels were gone, our men fired the house, all of the out buildings, a quantity of hay and grain in the stack, took a number of beef cattle, and returned to camp.

The rebels tried this morning to cut off a reserve picket of Major Stevens', but they were not successful. We formed the line of battle about two o'clock this morning, but there was no further alarm.

Gen. Hancock says that the fifth Wisconsin is the most fearless set of men he ever saw. He ordered some boys who were in a cabbage patch to fall in line, and as a means of hurrying them, told them the rebels were coming, but he said the boys only looked up and then finished their eating.

We did some fine battalion drilling the other day, when the whole regiment was here. The general said he never saw before as fine a line, and and as good marching of a regiment as we did that day. The boys of the Maine regiment all give up that we are far ahead of them in every respect. They fairly envy us, our band, and our discipline. There is nothing that exceeds the coolness of the boys when there is a prospect of a fight; when the long roll is beat they go to work, buckle on their cartridge boxes, fill their haversacks, and then fall in line and wait orders. There is no hasty moving, but all are perfectly cool. We are expecting a chance to try the rebels here before long, and then the boys will give a good account of themselves. They are ready and willing, and are spoiling for a fight. We are in hopes to get our desire of a battle before long.

Dr. Palmer was here last Sunday, and reports the seventh as being all well. He certainly looks rugged.

Yours truly,
J. M. KIMBALL.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.—We shall never tire of praising D. B. De Land & Co.'s Chemical Saleratus. We hail its advent with joy as we have long been out of patience with the inferior stuff that has spoilt our bread, biscuit, cakes, &c. D. B. De Land & Co. ought to draw a pension for introducing this wholesome article before the world. It is now for sale by most dealers in the country. *

FINE POTATOES.—We have been shown a very fine sample of the English Fluke potatoe, raised by R. A. Hawley, of the town of Center. They are the third crop raised in this country, and are of a superior quality and flavor. Mr. Hawley has them for sale in limited quantities.

All we have to say in this matter is, that we have much the largest stock in this city, and we shall sell it at least thirty per cent less than the same goods were ever sold for in this place. Any person wanting sets of Crockery will do well to take a look at ours before purchasing.

IN CONCLUSION,

we will say that having bought our entire stock this fall for cash, at low prices, and a great many goods much less than they are worth now, and changed our system to

SELLING ENTIRELY FOR CASH,

we propose to sell goods this fall and winter at very

LOW PRICES.

Persons visiting Janesville will give us a call, we will show them through our stock, and we think we will convince them that we mean just what we say.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

SECTION 1. Section 22 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, with the thereunto belonging amendment, (see chapter 98 of the general laws of 1858,) is hereby amended as follows: by striking out the following words: "Said stocks to be valued at a rate to be estimated and governed by the average rate at which said stocks have been sold in the city of New York, within the next six months preceding the time when such stocks may be left on deposit with the comptroller." By striking out the words "equal to," and inserting after the words "not exceeding," the words "in value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall in all cases be, or be made to be equal to a stock producing six per cent per annum; and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York at the time of deposit by such person or association of persons;" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks;" so that said section shall henceforth read as follows: "Whenever, hereafter, any person or association of persons, formed for the purpose of banking under the provisions of this chapter, shall duly assign and transfer, in trust to the treasurer of this state, any portion of the public stocks issued or to be issued by the United States or any state stocks, on which full interest is annually paid, such person or association of persons shall be entitled to receive from the bank comptroller an amount of such circulating notes of different denominations, registered and countersigned, and not exceeding in value the amount of public stocks assigned and transferred as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stocks, which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks, but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks: Provided, that if in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state, any stocks offered shall be deemed insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act: and provided, further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861, the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes, any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States."

SEC. 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum to be receivable by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stocks producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 3. Section 40 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "located" and "to," in the 19th line of said section, the words "or to the judge at chambers."

SEC. 5. The appointment of such agent shall be made in writing, and such written appointment shall be delivered to the bank comptroller on or before said first day of December next, who shall file the same in his office. If any bank or banking association shall neglect or refuse to appoint such agent within the time above mentioned, the bank comptroller shall appoint such agent for such bank or banking association.

SEC. 6. The bank comptroller shall, immediately after said first day of December next, during such time as he may deem advisable, publish a list of such agents in one daily newspaper published in the city of Madison, and in one daily newspaper published in the city of Milwaukee, the expense whereof shall be equally divided among the several banks or banking associations so published, and be paid by them to the comptroller on demand, under penalty of forfeiture of one hundred dollars, to be collected and applied as provided in respect to the forfeiture named in section 19, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act; and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be collected in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations, authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund, to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes, in the city of Milwaukee or Madison, and also the circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon, and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor relieve such banks from any duty or liability required or imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such banks or banking associations, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for non-payment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest therefor, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum; Provided, that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bills or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be, and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless said bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located; and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital; and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section, and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purposes of such examination the comptroller, or in his absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths; Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank, banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless said bill, or note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit and pay for every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name and to the use of any person who shall sue for the same, and in any such suit to judgment in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock [illegible] in any such bank or banking association [illegible] and remain [illegible] for the term of [illegible] such sale, transfer or assignment, [illegible] ly liable to the amount of stock so [illegible] transferred or assigned by him for the [illegible] the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.
From the Eighth Regiment.

PILOT KNOB, Mo., Oct. 19, 1861.

DEAR GAZETTE:—After being in camp at St. Louis one day, we, with one half of the regiment, received orders to leave on Tuesday evening, and the other half left on Wednesday morning. We did not know where we were going till our arrival at the depot of the Iron Mountain railroad, we then for the first time found that a bridge, some fifty miles from St. Louis, had been burned, and that some fifteen hundred rebels had taken twenty-eight of our men prisoners. We arrived at Desoto at dark, and laid all night in the open air. The houses were mostly deserted, as the people thought the town would be burnt by the rebels that night.—On our arrival we put a guard around the town. Three times during the night the regiment was called out and formed in line of battle. The boys were all anxious for a fight, but we were disappointed. I assure you we had little sleep that night. Thursday morning we went on ten miles further to the place where the bridge was burned. Did not find any rebels there. We had to get out of the cars and go down a very steep hill and ford the stream called Big river. There was a large amount of baggage and it all had to be removed down the hill, over the river, and up just as steep a hill on the other side. I don't think that ever the same number of men did a greater amount of work in the same length of time. There were not cars to take all the men and baggage, and it was reported that there was a battle going on ahead, and the men must be sent forward. The Colonel took nine companies, and at 9 o'clock that evening, left us (the Janesville company) behind, to guard the baggage, of which we had a large amount. From the fact that it was reported that there was a large number of rebels in the vicinity, (they burnt a house the night before our arrival,) it was a very small number of men to leave at such an important point; but we all went to work with a will, and in a short time had a breast work made of the boxes, &c. We put a guard all around us, loaded a large number of extra guns, and all kept watch; we were good for at least fifteen hundred rebels. We also had ten prisoners; one of them has three times sworn not to take up arms against the government; would it not be a blessing to himself to kill such a dog?

The night passed and the enemy did not appear, and we concluded that they are great cowards, or bad managers. At 3 o'clock yesterday the train returned from the Knob for us. We all went to work again and loaded the train; did not get off until about ten o'clock in the evening. We arrived here about 3 A. M., unloaded the train, and after that was done we were marched about a mile to the place where our regiment was in camp, and found them all lying out in the open air. We let the knapsacks fall from our backs, threw ourselves down on the ground, and were soon asleep. I awoke this morning about seven o'klock, and what a scene! East, west, north and south of us was a rugged mountain—some say a hill, but if they call that a hill I should like to see a mountain. I went to the top of one to-day, over six hundred feet high; the top is one solid rock, from which floats the "Flag of our Union." This is a very important point, as it is the terminus of the railroad, it is supposed that if the rebels should take it St. Louis would be in danger; but you need not be alarmed, they will never have it. Already we have five thousand men, and more are coming in every day. Jeff. Thompson has been reported as intending to take breakfast here every morning for the last week; if he don't come in a day or two we are going out to fetch him and his forty thousand men in, as they are reported to be starving. On each of the three roads entering the town we have a 36-pounder to salute them when they come.

I have written a much longer letter than I expected, and have not said one half I want to, but I must now close.

Yours truly,
JOHN A. WHITE.

The republicans of the senatorial district comprising the counties of Eau Claire, Pepin, &c., have nominated Hon. M. D. Bartlett for the senate.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE EX-GOVERNOR.—Ex-Gov. Wm. Woodbridge, of Michigan, died at Detroit, on the 20th inst., at the venerable age of 84.

The negroes in Canada are emigrating in large numbers to Hayti. One hundred and forty-four left Chatham last week.—They are probably apprehensive that Canada will be annexed to the United States if we have a brush with John Bull.

It is said in Louisville, Ky., that Col. J. H. Harney, a strong Union man, will be chosen to the seat of John C. Breckinridge in the United States senate, and that John J. Crittenden will succeed Lazarus W. Powell.

Henry Winter Davis spoke to an immense audience at Baltimore, Wednesday evening, on the rebellion. He endorsed the war policy of the government fully, and his speech was enthusiastically received.

A new invention in artillery is noticed in the Pittsburgh papers. In consists of an entire battery on a single carriage. The six field pieces are securely fastened to a turn-table, which revolves as the guns are successfully discharged.

SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their sizes, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the twofold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The War in Missouri.

The St. Louis Democrat of Tuesday morning says:—The confederates are to-day hopelessly beaten in Missouri, and their forces are fleeing hence into Arkansas.—Till a day or two since, the advices were consistent to the purport that Price was precipitately retiring from the state, in the avowed belief that a battle with Fremont would prove ruinous. It next appeared that urgent appeals from Hardee, McCulloch, Buckner and Polk, accompanied with assurances of reinforcement, had induced the retreating General "to make a stand."—They told him that to leave the state would be to lose it, and to permit Fremont to move resistlessly through Arkansas and into Kentucky and Tennessee. The intelligence now is that Price is again disappointed, and is continuing his flight.—Wanting the aid pledged him at Lexington, he fled opportunely thence, and now unsupported, as in his exigency he deems indispensable, he chooses humanely the ruin of his cause, without a battle to its equally inevitable destruction with one. So much of Price's demoralized army as remains with him will doubtless be pursuaded into Arkansas, and thence routed or scattered.—The federal army of the west has at last opening before it the fair programme of moving down the great valley to co operate with the federal navies on the Gulf.

Secretary Cameron's Order to General Fremont.

We have heretofore published the following, but as its authenticity is not denied, we give it as a part of the history of the times:

The following is a copy of the very important order issued by the secretrry of war before he left St. Louis, and after he had visited Gen. Fremont at Tipton:

"ST. LOUIS, MO., Oct. 14.

"GENERAL: The secretary of war directs me to communicate the following as his instructions for your government:

"In view of the heavy sums due, especially in the quartermaster's department in this city, amounting to some $4,500,000, it is important that the money which may now be in the hands of the disbursing officers, or be received by them, be applied to the current expenses of your army in Missouri, and these debts to remain unpaid until thep can be properly examined and sent to Washington for settlement; the disbursing officers of the army to disburse the funds, and not transfer them to irresponsible agents—in other words, those who do not hold commissions from the president, and are not under bonds. All contracts necessary to be made are to be made by the disbursing officers. The senior quartermaster here has been verbally instructed by the secretary as above.

"It is deemed unnecessary to erect field-works around this city, and you will direct their discontinuance; also those, if any, in course of construction at Jefferson City. In this connection, it is seen that a number of commissions have been given by you. No payment will be made to such officers, except to those confirmed by the president. This, of course, does not apply to the officers with volunteer troops. Col. Andrews has been verbally so instructed by the secretary; also, not to make transfers of funds, except for the purpose of paying the troops.

"The erection of barracks near your quarters in this city to be at once discontinued.

"The secretary has been informed that the troops of Gen. Lane's command are committing depredations on our friends in Western Missouri. Your attention is directed to this, in the expectation that you will apply the corrective.

"Major Allen desires the services of Captain Turnley for a short time, and the secretary hopes you may find it proper to accede thereto.

"I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
"Your obedient servant,

"Major General JOHN C. FREMONT, commanding department of the west, Tipton, Missouri."

This order is disgraceful to the secretary of war, and not to Gen. Fremont. It is rather a compliment to the latter. Evidently the secretary is dissatisfied with Fremont, and if the insinuations contained in this document are true, Gen. Fremont should be removed. But the war department does not dare to displace him. The ebullitions of spleen against him in this order are the mutterings and fault-findings of imbecility against a superior power. Fremont will look down upon it in that light from his superior elevation, and will treat it with the contempt it deserves.

The amount expended by Fremont, $4,500,000, will not astound the people at all considering the vast sums expended elsewhere, and taking into view the work performed in Missouri; but by removing the place of settlement of the accounts of the western department from St. Louis to Washington, a nice per centage will be made by somebody in buying them up.

The irregularity of Gen. Fremont's appointments is not greater than is constantly occurring in this war everywhere. The administration knew that Fremont must have officers and munitions. If they did not desire him to use his authority in the manner he has, why did they not supply him from Washington? Why so late in discovering his proceedings? They knew every day what he was doing; but it will be remembered that no fault was found with him until the Blair quarrel. His proceedings were all regular until F. P. Blair, Jr., ascertained that he was not to control everything, making Fremont a mere cat's-paw.

An unworthy imputation is contained in the discontinuance of barracks "near your residence"; as if they were placed in that position to protect the commanding general, who is exposing himself in a distant part of the state. There may be some courtly phrase at Washington to designate such a thing—but we have not learned it "out west"—we here call it mean.

The paltry insinuation about Gen. Lane is in perfect keeping with the whole order. He carries on the war in earnest, which is not the policy at Washington. His hands are not covered with cotton when he touches the enemy, and he does not regard traitors as "friends." This is his offence.

This order will not be regarded as a creditable production on the part of the secretary of war, in the future history that is to be written of this contest. He will occupy a small space in it compared with the man whom he assails.

THE BATTLE OF BOLIVAR.—The Milwaukee Sentinel publishes a letter from Frederick, Md., giving an account of a serious fight at Bolivar, near Harper's Ferry, on the 16th, in which three companies of the Wisconsin third distinguished themselves. Companies A, C, and H, of that regiment were sent to Harper's Ferry on the 9th, for the purpose of securing 30,000 bushels of wheat, and conveying it across the Potomac. On the morning of the 10th they were attacked by about sixty horsemen, but succeeded in driving them off, killing two of the enemy. From that time until the 16th they were unmolested and succeeded in conveying all the wheat across the river but about 1000 bushels. On the morning of the 16th our troops, together with detachments from the Massachusetts 13th and Pennsylvania 28th, were attacked by a large force, some five or six hundred, who had two cannon, one a 32-pounder, Columbiad. After fighting two hours and capturing the Columbiad, they were forced to retire to Bolivar, leaving the captured gun.

After gaining Bolivar, recruiting their cartridge boxes, and resting a short time, they formed a line and advanced upon the enemy again, having now the aid of a piece of artillery. When they arrived within view of the 32-pounder again, they found it deserted. The enemy fired a few shots at them and retired.

Our boys took their captured cannon across the river with them. The loss was three men killed, one taken prisoner, and six or seven wounded. The name of one Wisconsin soldier is mentioned among the killed—Mosher, of company C. The correspondent pays a high compliment to the Massachusetts soldiers, but two companies of the Pennsylvanians retreated. This was a brilliant affair, and the conduct of our Wisconsin troops is much lauded.

MORE SUPERSEDING.—The special correspondents of the New York papers again inform us by telegraph that Gen. Fremont has been superseded; and that he has not. If the administration knew how detrimental such rumors are to the Union cause in the west, they would put an end to the public suspense in this matter.

We see that these correspondents have commenced superseding Gen. McClellan, also. Let this be stopped at once. The people will lose all confidence in the government, if they are to be continually excited by doubts created in this manner.

THE CRY FOR BREAD IN FRANCE.—The London Times says that France will be compelled to spend forty millions sterling, or, in round numbers, two hundred millions of dollars, to make up the deficiencies in her domestic bread crops of this year, and that both "Canada and the United States will be importing largely into France."—So they will and in this necessity for bread we hold France and England, too, under bonds to keep the peace with us, in order to keep the peace among their own people.

Mr. Potter, has closed his labors, as chairman of the investigating committee at Washington, for the present, having examined about 1,400 cases of persons in public stations, supposed to be more or less impregnated with secession sympathies.—But the field of investigation is not exhausted, and will be re-opened on the assembling of congress.

☞ Six to eight thousand Indians are said to be a few miles south of Springfield, Missouri. Scouts report that Gen. Stirling Price, on Tuesday, was fifteen miles west of Jackson, Cedar county, and Gen. Rains at the same time within twenty miles of Greenfield, Dade county, which is west of Cedar.

There has been another skirmish near Linn Creek, resulting disastrously to the rebels.

County Convention.

At the County Convention held in this city to day, Mr. J. I. Foote, was nominated for school superintendent.

R. T. Pember, of Johnstown was nominated for county supervisor at large.

Assembly District Convention.

A convention of republican delegates from Bradford, Clinton, Johnstown and La Prairie, was held at Emerald Grove on the 22d of October, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for member of assmbly and county supervisor, for the assembly district composed of the above named towns.

H. G. McArthur was appointed chairman, and B. F. Cary secretary.

On motion the chair appointed D. G. Cheever and J. A. Chamberlain a committee on credentials.

The committee reported as delegates: J. H. Wemple, A. Fredendall, Levi Inman, and Charles Lee from Bradford; D. G. Cheever, R. P. Willard, H. Pierce and D. M. Tallman from Clinton; B. F. Cary, R. T. Pember, David Wade and E. L. Payson from Johnstown; James A. Chamberlain, John Dixon, H. G. McArthur and S. Vangalder from La Prairie.

On motion the chair appointed David Wade and Charles Lee as tellers.

The delegation from Clinton not being full, it was voted to give their delegation present the privilege of casting their full vote.

On motion the convention proceeded to an informal ballot for member of assembly.

Edward Inman received 4; Samuel Miller 5; R. T. Pember 4.

Convention then proceeded to a formal ballot, as follows:

Edward Inman received 4; Samuel Miller 8; R. T. Pember 3.

Samuel Miller having received a majority of all the votes, was on motion declared unanimously nominated.

The convention on motion proceeded to an informal ballot for county commissioner, (should be supervisor.)

Jacob Fowle received 5; B. F. Cary 3; C. C. Warner 5; P. D. Wemple 2.

Convention proceeded to a formal ballot, as follows:

Jacob Fowle 8; B. F. Cary 4; C. C. Warner 4.

Second formal ballot:

Jacob Fowle 7; B. F. Cary 8; C. C. Warner 1.

Third formal ballot:

Jacob Fowle 6; B. F. Cary 8; C. C. Warner 1.

B. F. Cary having received a majority of all the votes cast, was on motion declared unanimously nominated.

The nominees being called out responded in a few brief remarks, tendering their thanks to the convention, and accepting the nomination. After which the convention was highly entertained by a speech from J. I. Foot, A. M., as to the importance, labor and responsibility of the office of county superintendent.

War Meeting in Bradford.

BRADFORD, Oct. 19th.

According to notice given a meeting was held at the Emerald Grove school house, for the purpose of obtaining volunteers for the Tredway Rifles, a company filling up at Milton, under the supervision of Pliny Norcross.

R. Cheney was chosen chairman, and J. Fowle, secretary.

Mr. Norcross being present, was called to the stand. His remarks were continued for the space of an hour, and were such as to command the strictest attention. It was acknoweldged by all present to be the best meeting of the kind held in this place.

Enlistments were solicited, and in addition to those heretofore made in this place, Mr. Oliver Crowther came forward and was forthwith sworn in.

Remarks from volunteers were called for and duly responded to by J. H. Wemple, Walter Scott and Robert Whittleton.

Messrs. P. D. Wemple and S. Scott, each having volunteer sons present, gave them appropriate advice, a part of which I here relate, as given by Mr. Scott: "Never aid in returning a fugitive slave. Open your breast to the cannnon's mouth first, and die honorably. If you do aid in returning the poor fugitives, a monument by me, shall never, never, be erected to your memory."

After many good and heart-felt expressions were given, the meeting adjourned.

F.

MILITARY ITEMS—Dr. Chapman of the 6th regiment, having been appointed brigade surgeon, Dr. A. W. Preston is commissioned as surgeon of the 6th regiment and Dr. Bartlett as 1st assistant surgeon.

The equipments for the 1st and 10th regiments and three batteries of artillery are all ready so that they can leave for their destination this week.

The 9th and 11th regiments are ordered forthwith to Louisville, Kentucky, and are expected to leave about the middle of next week. The blue uniforms for the 11th will be distributed either to-day or to-morrow. All the batteries of artillery are ordered to Louisville, Kentucky.

The Madison Journal says, Col. C. C. Washburn has been in the city for a day or two. He has the most flattering prospects for raising his regiment of cavalry within a short time. Some of the best men in the State are going into it. Mr. Washburn's personal popularity, and the confidence that is felt in him will enable him to raise a regiment second to none that has entered the service.

What a glorious world this would be if all its inhabitants could say with Shakspeare's shepherd: "Sir, I am a true laborer; I earn what I wear, owe no man hate, envy no man's happiness, glad of other men's good, content with my farm."

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.

Herald's special.—Flag officer Craven has just arrived here from lower Potomac. He reports that the river is effectually closed. The rebel batteries commanding at every point below Washington.

Gen. Harney still remains in this city, but it is reported that he will soon be assigned to active service.

The court to-day made an order citing Gen. Porter to appear and show cause, why he had ordered the arrest of Judge Merrick, and thus obstructing the course of justice.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.

A fire broke out this forenoon in the extensive cotton mill of Solomon & Co.—Loss undoubtedly heavy, but has not yet been ascertained.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 22.

A courier arrived at Camp Dick Robinson, early this morning, and reports fighting on the 21st, between Zollicoffer and Col. Garrard. The latter arrived at Camp Wild Cat with 1,200 men. Zollicoffer had from 6,000 to 7,000 men, who made three different attacks during the day upon the camp, being repulsed each time with considerable loss of killed and wounded. The federal loss is four killed and twenty wounded. Just as the courier left Camp Wild Cat, the 14th Ohio regiment and a force of artillery, arrived to reinforce Garrard.

HARRISBURGH, Oct. 22.

A general order was issued immediately, on the receipt of the intelligence of the death of Col. Baker, which contained the following: It is with great regret that the commander-in-chief has learned of the death of Col. Baker, on the field of battle. Although not a citizen of Pennsylvania, he had been selected by many of her sons as their commander, and met his death while gallantly heading them into action.

ST. JOHNS, Oct. 22.

The Africa has arrived with Liverpool dates to the 12th.

Advices by the Africa are up to Sunday afternoon, the 13th inst., and are consequently two days later than those received by the Ætna at New York.

COMMERCIAL.—The Liverpool breadstuff market on Friday, generally showed an advancing tendency and closed steady on Saturday. Flour firm. Wheat advanced 2d per quintal, since Tuesday.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.

The following is an extract from the correspondence of Philadelphia Exchange:—The steamer Flag was off Charleston on the 10th; yesterday we saw a ship standing in, intending to run the blockade. We pursued her; she was run ashore and all hands escaped before our taking her. We boarded her and found her to be the Lewis Watson, formerly of Philadelphia, but now owned in Charleston, from Liverpool, and laden with salt, flannel and blankets. The latter articles were taken out, and the ship fired, and was nearly consumed when the Vandalia sailed.

PILOT KNOB, Oct. 22.

Special to the St. Louis Republican.—From reliable parties who witnessed the fight at Fredericktown on the 21st, I gather the following particulars:

Col. Carlin with portions of the 21st, 33d and 38th Illinois regiments, 8th Wisconsin, Col. Baker's Indiana cavalry, and Major Schofield's battery, reached Fredericktown at 9 o'clock in the morning, and at 1 P. M. was joined by the 11th, 17th and 20th Illinois and forty cavalry from Cape Giradeau. They then advanced in pursuit of the rebels under Jeff. Thompson and Col. Lowe, who had left the place twenty-four hours before, and were reported to be rapidly retreating south; but about a mile from the town they discovered the entire force of the enemy drawn up in line of battle, partly posted in an open field and partly in the adjacent woods, with four iron 8-pounders well planted in their front.

Major Schofield immediately opened fire; at the fourth round silenced one of the enemy's guns. The engagement then became general, and lasted about two hours; but after the first half hour the rebels left the field in disorder and took to the woods, closely followed by both our infantry and cavalry. Before leaving the field the rebel Col. Lowe was shot in the head and instantly killed. Major Gavitt received five bullets while leading a charge thirty yards in advance of his command. Capt. Highman was killed in the same charge.

Our loss is reported five killed, five mortally wounded, and eight hundred and twenty slightly wounded. The enemy's is not ascertained, but supposed to be considerable.

At last accounts the rebels were in full retreat with their baggage train, and our troops in pursuit.

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 22.

Special to St. Louis Democrat.—Parties direct from Warsaw say no news of importance had reached that point up to 2 o'clock yesterday. The pontoon bridge was finished.

Gov. Gamble left this forenoon for Washington.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 22.

The New Orleans Picayune of the 12th, editorially congratulates its readers on the success of Hollins' flotilla at Mississippi, and particularly the exploits of the Manassas. It also urges the southern people to be prepared to drive the northern invaders from their ports and coasts at every sacrifice and exertion.

A law of the confederate states awards to owners of privateer armed vessels, in confederate bonds, twenty per cent of the value of any United States armed public vessel and armament which they may destroy. Another law gives twenty dollars bounty for each prisoner captured on board such vessel.

The Picayune further says that only two federal vessels were to be seen at the Passes at last accounts. They were supposed to be the Richmond and Vincennes. The Niagara went eastward before the attack of Saturday. The Richmond and the Vincennes are afloat. The other sloop-of-war is not visible, and it is inferred she has sunk. The damaged one was believed to be the Preble.

The lumber landed at the head of the passes was not burned.

The Memphis Appeal learns that S. B. Buckner has been appointed a Major General.

The Galveston News says hundreds of companies, mostly cavalry, are tendering their services to Gen. Abert, for the defence of Galveston.

Telegraphic communication between New Orleans and Berwick Bay has been completed. A telegram from Berwick says, the Yankees captured on Saturday last the schooner Seavalia, with a cargo valued at $20,000.

The Mobile Tribune of the 11th, speaking of the Santa Rosa affair, says, "The coup was made with considerable loss on our side, but doubtless the federal loss much exceeded ours."

To-Day's Report.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.

The Washington Star's description of the fight at Edward's Ferry, says both wings were attacked as early as 9 A. M., but the enemy was repulsed whenever he appeared. At about 5 P. M. the right wing found itself confronted by near 40,000 of the enemy under Gen. Evans, with artillery. Gen. Baker gallantly led the charge in which he was killed.

The officer left in command immediately ordered the men to fall back near the river bank, where they could be supported by Gen. Stone and the portions of the army that had at at that time effected a crossing. The men obeyed in good order, carrying off all dead and wounded. On reaching the position selected, the right wing, though under fire of the enemy, which gradually slackened until midnight, when it ceased. Throughout the night the balance of Gen. Stone's force crossed the river and threw up temporary works that rendered his position secure, and enabled him to protect the crossing of the division of Gen. Bank's, to be effected this morning.

The object of Gen. Stone's movement was to enable his command, with Gen. Banks' position, to be safety transferred to Virginia. Evans attacked Col. Baker in front and both flanks. Col. Coggswell was probably taken prisoner.

Our information so far this forenoon, is that Gen. Banks' army arrived at Maryland landing, Edward's Ferry, last night, and have been crossing the river securely since daylight.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.

Information received here by private letters, state the loss in killed and wounded at Edward's Ferry at 175.

The main portion of Sickles' brigade is now opposite the confederate batteries, and it is said are preparing to act on the offensive against the batteries.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.

Tribune's special.—The report made by Adj't. Gen. Thomas of his recent examination into the administration of the department of the west, by Maj. Gen. Fremont, was this morning considered in a full cabinet meeting; with the reluctance which hesitates to injure a distinguished man and wound and disappoint the friends whom a popular leader gathers in his cause, all the members of the cabinet slowly pronounced their judgments, that the interest of Missouri and of the Union, required that Gen. Fremont should be superseded in his command, by Maj. Gen. Hunter. The order to this effect will be issued to-morrow.

The president was greatly afflicted by the death of Col. Baker.

Herald's dispatch.—The latest news to-night is that the whole of Gen. Stone's column has crossed the Potomac and is in full pursuit of the enemy, and that General Bank's column had reached the banks of the river and would speedily follow and support Stone. Information received to night from Gen. Stone's command, announces that the fight was a desperate one, and that a large number were killed on both sides. Although the enemy was much stronger than Gen. Stone, he was falling back before the advance of our troops, and would have undoubtedly been totally routed but for the fall of Col. Baker, which produced a sudden confusion among our troops.

Gen. Gustavus Smith commanded the enemy, and a private despatch asserts that he was shot from his horse and carried off the field.

Gen. Banks with his command is now supporting Gen. Stone, and being a major general, is in full command.

Gen. McClellan left for Gen. Bank's head quarters in the field this morning.

It is a subject of regret that Gen. Baker should have engaged the enemy, when, according to report, he was ordered to make a reconnoisance only, with strict instructions, if attacked, to fall back and not fight.

Gen. Baker made his will on Saturday last, deposited it with Col. Webb, and when he left for the field, he said to the latter, "I shall participate in battle in forty-eight hours. If I fall I request that you take charge of my body."

An effort is making to supercede General McClellan with Gen. Halleck, who is on his way here from California. This change would create a new revolution in military and civil circles, where the greatest confidence is entertained for Gen. McClellan.

Col. Geary reports that the four men who were killed at the battle of Bolivar Heights, were afterwards charged upon by the cavalry and stabbed through the body, and stripped of all their clothing, not excepting shoes and stockings, and left in perfect nudity. One was laid out in the form of crucifixion, with his hands spread and cut through the palms with a dull knife.

Times' dispatch.—At the cabinet meeting to day, it was decided not to interfere with Gen. Fremont and his command.—Judge Davis, of Illinois, was commissioned to take testimony in reference to contracts made in the western department, and all bills that he passes will be paid.

Trustworthy information received this morning from Fairfax Court House, states that only the rebel pickets are present at that place. A small force, however, is stationed at Germantown, a mile and a half distant.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

ROLLA, Oct. 23.

Lieut. Kirby, with 15 men of Major Wright's battallion, had another fight with 45 rebels, near Linn Creek, on the 17th, killing five of them and wounding about a dozen. The result of Major Wright's march from Rolla to Linn Creek can be summed up as follows—Three successful fights, in which 60 rebels were killed, about the same number were wounded, 87 prisoners, 123 guns, 15 horses, several yoke of oxen, waggons, and many other articles.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.

The success of the movement of General Stone and General Banks across the Potomac is now established, as the enemy did not venture to make any further resistance to it yesterday. All accounts agree that our men conducted themselves nobly in the affair of Monday, even the portion of the column which received a temporary check by the death of Col. Baker, behaved gallantly, although opposed to a force of triple their number. The ground thus gained was retained in the undisturbed possession of our troops. All day, yesterday, scouts and reconnoitering parties obtained much valuable information in regard to the enemy. The above facts are derived from reliable sources.

Ashbury Dickens, late secretary of the senate for many years, died here this morning, at the age of 98.

It is understood the blankets ordered in Europe in August, by the quartermaster's department are arriving; 29,000 have already reached New York. They cost the United States 4d per pound, and weigh five pounds.

Price's army was at Greenfield last Wednesday, still headed south.

Reports from Springfield say Gen. McBride, of the rebel forces, has resigned and is on his way to that place to disband and return home.

Col. Taylor, in command of the rebel forces at Springfield, recently issued a proclamation declaring that all Union men who had belonged to the Home Guard would be required to leave the country or go into the southern army for the same length of time they had served in the federal army, and requiring a pledge from Union men now there for the exemplary conduct of their friends who are absent from home. The proclamation also prohibits carrying any more slaves south, as such a course is calculated to lessen the confidence of the people in the ability of the southern army to sustain itself in Missouri.

FORT MONROE, Oct. 22.

Gen. Sherman arrived to-day on the Atlantic. There was a slight affair at Newport News yesterday, but resulted with a slight loss on either side.

NEW YORK, 23d.

The steamship North Star from Aspinwall is coming up.

A private of the Massachusetts First, wounded at Bull Run and taken to Richmond, has arrived here. His account of the treatment of prisoners is interesting. He says the only northern paper in Richmond is the New York Herald, which is received regularly the second day after its publication.

A nolle prosequi has been entered in the case of Alf. Farris, one of the crew of the privateer Savannah, and he has been accepted as a witness. A jury is being empannelled.

Owing to a report that the Potomac is at present closed, the United States transports now loading at this port for Washington will proceed to Locust Point, where their cargo will be forwarded by railway to Washington.

Large quantities of ammunition and stores are now being shipped to St. Louis by railroad.

Colonel Joseph B. Plummer, who commanded the troops at the battle of Fredericktown, Missouri, is a native of Massachusetts, and graduate of West Point in 1841, when he entered the regular army. In 1852 he was promoted to a captaincy in the 1st infantry, and in that capacity commanded a company of regulars under Gen. Lyon at Springfield. He was a few weeks ago appointed colonel of the Missouri 11th, and placed in command at Cape Girardeau. When, therefore, the forces from Cape Girardeau and Ironton met at Fredericktown to give battle to the enemy, his rank as army officer gave him command of the whole. The troops under him numbered about 5,000, with cavalry and artillery, and their success is represented to have been complete.—Chicago Tribune.

The death of the Emperor of China is reported by the Ætna. His name was Hienfung, or Hanfung, in the Canton dialect. He was the seventh monarch of the reigning dynasty of Tsing, who succeeded in 1644 to that of the Mings. According to Chinese chronology, he was the two hundred and forty-fourth monarch who has occupied the throne of the empire in the 4,703 years of its existence. His reign commenced at the death of his father, Tankwang, which occurred on the 26th of February, 1850, but out of respect for his memory, he dated his accession from the 1st of February, 1851. Hienfung was born in August, 1831, and was, therefore, thirty years of age at the time of his death. Hienfung was not his proper name, but his name of state. It signifies "perfect felicity;" a strange title for a prince who could scarcely maintain his throne against rebels.

THE ARREST OF COL. BLAIR.—The statement that Col. Blair was kept under arrest ten days after Gen. Scott's order for his release was issued, is incorrect. The order was dispatched immediately to Gen. Fremont, at Jefferson City, who lost no time in obeying it.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Jayne's Ague Mixture

Is an infallible remedy for Fever and Ague. The experience of many years in almost every climate proves that where used strictly in accordance with the directions, it has rarely failed to cure.—not only by breaking up the chills, but by removing the morbid habits of the system, preventing a recurrence of the disease.

Fever and Ague, though not in itself dangerous, is apt, unless speedily removed, to have such a pernicious effect on the system, as to engender disorders much more baneful than itself, and which not only render the afterlife of the patient miserable, but are in themselves often fatal. A prompt and effectual remedy is therefore what is wanted, and as such DR. D. JAYNE'S AGUE MIXTURE is confidently recommended. For sale by O. R. CURTIS.

I. JUSTIN, JR., Secy.

The ladies who have assisted or are willing to assist in furnishing comforts for our soldiers, are invited to meet on Thursday, the 24th inst., at two o'clock P. M., in the basement of the Baptist church.

The ladies have had four meetings during the month, and though the attendance has not been large, they have by subscription and through the labors of committees raised the sum of ten dollars and sixty cents, besides a large amount of clothing and necessaries for hospital use.

It is hoped that measures may be adopted for a more complete and extended organization, and efficient co-operation with the sanitary board.

The occasion demands a patient continuance in well doing. Let the spirit which animated the daughters of the Revolution stir every woman's heart, till their untiring efforts shall carry sympathy and comfort to the pillow of every suffering soldier. *

BENEFIT OF ADVERTISING.—On the night of the 11th inst., Geo. Mansfield, of this city, had his buggy stolen. As soon as his loss was discovered he repaired to this office and had a lot of bills printed describing it minutely, and promptly mailed a copy to every sheriff in the state. In a few days he received a letter from the sheriff of Crawford county, stating he had taken such a buggy from a man arrested there for stealing a sett of double harness. Constable Gillett, of this city, immediately went to Prairie du Chien, and returned last night with the buggy and a lot of other property stolen in this city. Thus by an investment of twelve seillings he has recovered his property and that of other parties also, who were too prudent to invest any thing in that way.

A FINE PIANO FOR SALE.—Mr. Geo. F. Lane has a fine seven octave piano forte for sale. It is of beautiful finish, and for tone has few if any superiors. The instrument is of Boston make, and is warranted equal to the best manufactured. It will be sold at a price not exceeding Boston wholesale prices, and that within thirty days. Any one desiring to purchase a valuable piano for little money cannot do better than to buy of Mr. Lane. Mr. L.'s residence is near the corner of High and School streets. See his advertisement.

THE BATTLE AT FREDRICKTOWN.—We have the following additional particulars of the fight at Fredricktown, Mo., which is on the direct route between Ironton and Cape Girardeau, distant from the former some twenty miles, and from the latter about fifty. On Friday last Col. Plummer left Cape Girardeau with 2,500 men, nearly his entire command, and met at Fredricktown the troops from Ironton, under Col. Carlin, who co operated with him in the attack.

The whole force when combined, was under command of Col. Plummer, and numbered about 5000 men, a portion of each division having been left at home as gaurd.

The expedition was ordered to move by Gen. Fremont, through Capt. McKeever, the Assistant Adjutant General at St Louis.

Our loss was six killed and sixty wounded. A flag of truce came in from the enemy, for Col. Lowe's body. They acknowledge a loss of two hundred killed and wounded, but it must have been larger. Many of their dead are yet on the field.

The enemy's cannon were badly managed, their shot having little effect. Thompson got information of the movements of our troops by capturing a bearer of dispatches from Col. Plummer to Col. Carlin. The Missouri 11th had one killed and twenty-eight wounded; the 1st Indiana cavalry had one killed and twenty-eight wounded; the Wisconsin eighth none.—When our troops entered Fredericktown the inhabitants said Thompsan had gone to Greenville, when really he had taken a position about one mile from town. Their intention was to run our troops into an ambush. These lies of the inhabitants so enraged our troops that they pretty effectually gutted the town, and burned one third of it. The enemy at last accounts were being pursued southward.

Happiness grows at our own firesides—and is not to be picked up in a stranger's garden.

From the Fifth Regiment.

CAMP AT MCCALL'S HILL,
near LEWINSVILLE, Va., Oct. 16th, 1861.

The bloody, head-strong fifth is still in the land of the rebels, and company E at the head of all. We were out on picket at Lewinsville day before yesterday, and saw the rebels in full view. They were scouting near us, and came to a house about a mile distant and halted. The cavalry went out to see them, but they ran back into the woods again in double-quick time. Capt. Clark, of company A, went outside our lines that day, with his company, and got a number of cattle and horses. The cattle his men took from under the rebel guns, and the rebel scouts kept up a constant fire upon them while they were getting the cattle. The most of the stock was nice. The rebels tried, near night, to drive in our picket about a mile from where we were, but without success.

The village of Lewinsville is deserted by nearly all who ever lived there. There is one loyal man who was taken prisoner by the rebels once, and confined for a time at Fairfax Court House, but who, at length, got away and now keeps a grocery there. He reports the rebels to be deficient in only three things, those are shoes, sugar and salt. He saw no shoes in the army stores there, and the men were nearly or entirely barefooted; salt was four dollars per bushel, and but little to be had at even that price; sugar was nearly as scarce, and proportionately dear. He says the rebel leaders fear our blockade more than they do our army, but they may fear the army before we are done with them.

Companies B, C, H and A were out yesterday after forage, and to find out the location of the enemy. They tried hard to get the enemy to show themselves, but except a few scouts they saw none. They drove a scouting party of rebels away from a house where they would lie concealed and fire on our scouts when they came within a mile or less of the place. After the rebels were gone, our men fired the house, all of the out buildings, a quantity of hay and grain in the stack, took a number of beef cattle, and returned to camp.

The rebels tried this morning to cut off a reserve picket of Major Stevens', but they were not successful. We formed the line of battle about two o'clock this morning, but there was no further alarm.

Gen. Hancock says that the fifth Wisconsin is the most fearless set of men he ever saw. He ordered some boys who were in a cabbage patch to fall in line, and as a means of hurrying them, told them the rebels were coming, but he said the boys only looked up and then finished their eating.

We did some fine battalion drilling the other day, when the whole regiment was here. The general said he never saw before as fine a line, and and as good marching of a regiment as we did that day. The boys of the Maine regiment all give up that we are far ahead of them in every respect. They fairly envy us, our band, and our discipline. There is nothing that exceeds the coolness of the boys when there is a prospect of a fight; when the long roll is beat they go to work, buckle on their cartridge boxes, fill their haversacks, and then fall in line and wait orders. There is no hasty moving, but all are perfectly cool. We are expecting a chance to try the rebels here before long, and then the boys will give a good account of themselves. They are ready and willing, and are spoiling for a fight. We are in hopes to get our desire of a battle before long.

Dr. Palmer was here last Sunday, and reports the seventh as being all well. He certainly looks rugged.

Yours truly,

J. M. KIMBALL.

We hail its advent with joy as we have long been out of patience with the inferior stuff that has spoilt our bread, biscuit, cakes, &c. D. B. De Land & Co. ought to draw a pension for introducing this wholesome article before the world. It is now for sale by most dealers in the country. *

FINE POTATOES.—We have been shown a very fine sample of the English Fluke potatoe, raised by R. A. Hawley, of the town of Center. They are the third crop raised in this country, and are of a superior quality and flavor. Mr. Hawley has them for sale in limited quantities.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

CHAPTER 242.

AS AMENDED BY CHAPTER 1, EXTRA SESSION.

AN ACT to amend the General Banking Law, and the several acts amendatory thereof.

The People of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, with the thereunto belonging amendment, (see chapter 93 of the general laws of 1858,) is hereby amended as follows: by striking out the following words: "Said stocks to be valued at a rate to be estimated and governed by the average rate at which said stocks have been sold in the city of New York, within the next six months preceding the time when such stocks may be left on deposit with the comptroller." By striking out the words "equal to," and inserting after the words "not exceeding," the words "in value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall in all cases be, or be made to be equal to a stock producing six per cent per annum; and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York at the time of deposit, by such person or association of persons;" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks;" [illegible] said section shall henceforth read as follows: [illegible] ever, hereafter, any person or association of persons, formed for the purpose of banking under the provisions of this chapter, shall duly assign and transfer in trust to the treasurer of this state, any portion of the public stocks issued or to be issued by the United States or any state stocks, on which full interest is annually paid, such person or association of persons shall be entitled to receive from the bank comptroller an amount of such circulating notes of different denominations, registered and countersigned, and not exceeding in value the amount of public stocks assigned and transferred as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stocks, which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks, but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks: Provided, that if in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state, any stocks offered shall be deemed insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act: and provide l, further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861, the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes, any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States.

SEC. 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum to be receivable by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stocks producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 3. Section 40 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "located" and "to," in the 19th line of said section, the words "or to the judge at chambers."

SEC. 4. Every bank and banking association now organized in this state, and all banks and banking associations that shall be organized before the 1st of day December, 1861, except such banks and banking associations as are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall, on or before said first day of December next, appoint an agent, who shall keep an office in the city of Milwaukee or in the city of Madison, for the redemption of all circulating notes issued by such bank or banking association, which shall be presented to such agent for payment or redemption.

SEC. 5. The appointment of such agent shall be made in writing, and such written appointment shall be delivered to the bank comptroller on or before said first day of December next, who shall file the same in his office. If any bank or banking association shall neglect or refuse to appoint such agent within the time above mentioned, the bank comptroller shall appoint such agent for such bank or banking association.

SEC. 6. The bank comptroller shall, immediately after said first day of December next, during such time as he may deem advisable, publish a list of such agents in one daily newspaper published in the city of Madison, and in one daily newspaper published in the city of Milwaukee, the expense whereof shall be equally divided among the several banks or banking associations so published, and be paid by them to the comptroller on demand, under penalty of forfeiture of one hundred dollars, to be collected and applied as provided in respect to the forfeiture named in section 19, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act; and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be collected in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations, authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund, to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes, in the city of Milwaukee or Madison, and also the circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon, and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor relieve such banks from any duty or liability required or imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such banks or banking associations, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for non-payment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest therefor, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller so to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum; Provided, that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bills or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be, and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless said bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located; and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital; and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section, and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purpose of such examination the comptroller, or in his absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths: Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank, banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless said bill, or note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit for every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, with costs of suit in the name of the person who shall sue for the same [illegible] such suit in any court having [illegible] thereof.

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association, who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock [illegible] to any such bank or banking association [illegible] and remain for the term of [illegible] such sale, transfer or assignment, [illegible] ly liable to the amount of stock so [illegible] transferred or assigned by him for the [illegible] the debts and liabilities of such bank or [illegible] ciation existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the 5th day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 18. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with, or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 19. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, in the year 1861, at all the usual places of holding elections in this state, for the election of all officers required by law then to be elected, the question whether this act shall become a law and go into effect, or in any manner be in force, shall be submitted to the people, and if the same shall be approved by a majority of all the votes cast on the subject, it shall go into effect; otherwise, it shall not go into effect nor be in force.

SEC. 20. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words: "For Amendments to the Banking Law;" or "Against Amendments to the Banking Law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be canvassed, and the secretary of state shall immediately, on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of the session, and he shall also deliver to the state treasurer a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject immediately after the completion of the canvass.
